When requesting an application kit, the applicant must specify the particular activity for which detailed information is desired. All information necessary to apply, including where to submit applications and application deadline instructions, are included in the application kit.

Purpose

The Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) Center for Substance Abuse

Treatment (CSAT) announces the availability of Fiscal Year (FY) 2001 funds for grants to American Indian and Alaskan Native (AI/AN) communities to support community planning and consensus building, leading to the development of local substance abuse treatment system plans. The plans would describe how tribal governments, organizations providing services to urban Indian communities, and other indigenous community organizations will work together to deliver integrated substance abuse treatment and related services, such as HIV/AIDS prevention, mental health services, primary care, and other public health services. The CSAT American Indian/Alaskan Native Planning Grants Program is made up of two types of grants: Phase I, which is the Development of a community planning process; and Phase II, which is the Implementation of a services integration plan.
