

terms of the Contract, it is impossible for the employer sponsor of the Section 457 Plan to use the assets invested in the Contract for any other purpose.

7. The Applicants rely on the exclusion from the definition of investment company that is identical to statutory provisions relied on by MassMutual, and no other provision of the 1940 Act compels Applicants to register under the 1940 Act. Applicants therefore believe they are entitled to rely on the Staff's position articulated in MassMutual, that the exclusion under Section 3(c)(11) is available to the Separate Accounts, and that the Separate Accounts should no longer be considered "investment companies" for purposes of registration under the 1940 Act.

8. Applicants assert that, with the passage of the Job Protection Act and subsequent issuance of the MassMutual no-action relief by the Staff, there no longer remains any doubt that Section 3(a)(2) of the 1933 Act and Section 3(c)(11) of the 1940 Act may be relied upon to exclude separate accounts issuing securities to Section 457 Plans from the definition of investment company. Given this change in the law, the needs of the Contract Owners, and the competitive landscape of the government retirement plan market, deregistration of the Separate Accounts is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors and for the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of the 1940 Act.

For the Commission, by the division of Investment Management, under delegated authority.

Margaret H. McFarland,
Deputy Secretary.
