SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

A. Estimated Burden

The Commission staff estimates that there are 850 firms required to test mattresses and keep records. The staff further estimates that each respondent will spend 26 hours for testing and recordkeeping annually for a total of 22,100 hours of annual burden. At a cost of $13.50 per hour, the average hourly non-farm wage figure, U.S. Statistical Abstract, 2000, the annualized cost to respondents would be $298,350.

B. Request for Comments

The Commission solicits written comments from all interested persons about the proposed collection of information. The Commission specifically solicits information relevant to the following topics:

- Whether the collection of information described above is necessary for the proper performance of the Commission's functions, including whether the information would have practical utility;
- Whether the estimated burden of the proposed collection of information is accurate;
- Whether the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected could be enhanced; and
- Whether the burden imposed by the collection of information could be minimized by use of automated, electronic or other technological collection techniques, or other forms of information technology.

DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY

Federal Energy Regulatory Commission

[Docket No. CP01-157-000]

Georgia-Pacific Corp.; Notice of Petition for Declaratory Order

April 24, 2001.

Take notice that on April 16, 2001, Georgia-Pacific Corporation (Georgia-Pacific) filed a petition for a declaratory order in the above-styled proceeding, requesting that the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission issue an order declaring that a prospective lease or other long-term arrangement under which a third-party owner of an industrial facility has the right to a portion of the capacity of Georgia-Pacific's pipeline that crosses the Arkansas/Louisiana border: (1) Shall not constitute the transportation of natural gas in interstate commerce; and (2) shall not subject such pipeline to any greater Commission regulation or oversight than currently in place.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with §§ 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed on or before May 15, 2001. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room. This filing may be viewed on the web at <http://www.ferc.fed.us/online/rims.htm> (call 202-208-2222 for assistance).
