POLICY JUSTIFICATIONUnited Arab Emirates - Joint Direct Attack Munition and Wind Corrected Munitions Dispenser Tail Kits

In support of a commercial sale of 80 F-16 Block 60 aircraft, the Government of the United Arab Emirates (UAE) has requested a possible sale of 500 Joint Direct Attack Munition (JDAM) and 800 Wind Corrected Munitions Dispenser (WCMD) tail kits, maintenance and pilot training, software support, publications and technical documentation, U.S. Government and contractor technical assistance and other related elements of logistics and program support. The estimated cost is $40 million.

This proposed sale, in support of a commercial purchase of 80 F-16 Block 60 aircraft, will contribute to the foreign policy and national security of the United States by helping to improve the security of a friendly country which has been and continues to be an important force for political stability and economic progress in the Middle East.

The proposed sale of the weapons will strengthen the effectiveness and interoperability of a potential coalition partner, reducing the dependence on U.S. forces in the region while enhancing any coalition operations the U.S. undertake. UAE will have no difficulty absorbing these tail kits into its armed forces.

The proposed sale of these weapons support will not affect the basic military balance in the region.

The principal contractors are the Boeing Company in St. Louis, Missouri for JDAM and Lockheed Martin in Orlando, Florida for WCMD. Offset arrangements were negotiated between Lockheed Martin and the UAE in conjunction with the 36(c) commercial sale.

The number of U.S. Government and contractor representatives required in UAE to support the program will be determined in joint negotiations as the program proceeds through the development, production and equipment installation phases.

There will be no adverse impact on U.S. defense readiness as a result of this proposed sale.

Transmittal No. 01-07Notice of Proposed Issuance of Letter of Offer
Pursuant to Section 36(b)(1) of the Arms Export Control Act*Annex
Item No. vi*(vi) Sensitivity of Technology:

1. The Joint Direct Attack Munitions is actually a guidance kit that converts existing unguided free-fall bombs into precision-guided "smart" munitions. By adding a new tail section containing an Inertial Navigation System (INS) guidance/Global Positioning System (GPS) guidance to existing inventories of MK-84 bombs, the cost effective JDAM provides highly accurate weapon delivery in any "flyable" weather. The INS, using updates from the GPS, helps guide the bomb to the target via the use of movable tail fins.

2. The Wind Corrected Munitions Dispenser (WCMD) is a guidance kit that converts unguided free-fall CBU-87 dispensers into a more accurate guided munition which provides highly accurate weapon delivery from many different altitudes and wind conditions.

3. Weapon accuracy is dependent on target coordinates and present position as entered into the guidance control unit. After weapon release, movable tail fins guide the weapon to the target coordinates. In addition to the tail kit, other elements in the overall system that are essential for successful employment include:

Access to accurate target coordinates.
INS/GPS capability
Operational Test and Evaluation Plan.

4. If a technologically advanced adversary were to obtain knowledge of the specific hardware and software elements, the information could be used to develop countermeasures which might reduce weapon system effectiveness or be used in the development of a system with similar or advanced capabilities.

5. A determination has been made that United Arab Emirates can provide substantially the same degree of protection for the sensitive technology being released as the U.S. Government. This sale is necessary in furtherance of the U.S. foreign policy and national security objectives outlined in the Policy Justification.
