Title XVI Benefits

Supplemental Security Income (SSI) payment levels for the aged, blind, and disabled, payable under title XVI of the Social Security Act, are increased annually with cost-of-living increases. For SSI payment levels for the year 2000, we used a cost-of-living increase of 2.4 percent based on published CPI figures. Pursuant to Pub. L. 106-554, in order to compensate for the shortfall in past benefit payments and provide the basis for adjusting ongoing and future payments, we will adjust the title XVI Federal payment levels as if the cost-of-living increase for January 2000 had been 2.5 percent. Accordingly, we provide the following calculations of title XVI payment levels.

For 1999, we derived the monthly benefit amounts for an eligible individual, an eligible individual with an eligible spouse, and for an essential person from yearly unrounded Federal SSI benefit amounts of $6,010.02, $9,014.01, and $3,011.89. For adjusted 2000 values, these yearly unrounded amounts increase by 2.5 percent (on a recalculated basis) to $6,160.27, $9,239.36, and $3,087.19 respectively. Each of these resulting amounts must be rounded, when not a multiple of $12, to the next lower multiple of $12. Accordingly, the corresponding adjusted annual amounts, effective for 2000, are $6,156, $9,228, and $3,084. Dividing the yearly amounts by 12 gives the corresponding monthly amounts for 2000—$513, $769, and $257, respectively. Of these 3 monthly amounts, only the $513 amount for an eligible individual is higher than the previously determined value for 2000 (based on the published CPI).

Similarly, SSI payment levels for the aged, blind, and disabled increased by 3.5 percent effective for January 2001. For 2001, the adjusted yearly unrounded amounts for 2000, as shown above, increase by 3.5 percent to $6,375.88, $9,562.74, and $3,195.24 for an eligible individual, an eligible individual with an eligible spouse, and for an essential person, respectively. Following the procedure outlined above, the corresponding adjusted monthly amounts for 2001 are $531, $796, and $266. Again, of these 3 monthly amounts, only the amount for an eligible individual ($531) is higher than the previously determined value for 2001.

Dated: May 18, 2001.

Larry G. Massanari,

Acting Commissioner of Social Security.
