OFFICE OF THE UNITED STATES TRADE REPRESENTATIVE

Designation of Senior Agency Official Under Executive Order 12958

AGENCY: Office of the United States Trade Representative.

ACTION: Notice of designation of "Senior Agency Official" for certain purposes under section 5.6 of Executive Order 12958 entitled "Classified National Security Information."

SUMMARY: The General Counsel of the Office of the U.S. Trade Representative has been designated as the senior agency official for purposes of section 1.8(d) of Executive Order 12958 and has the authority, along with the United States Trade Representative (USTR) and the Deputy USTRs, to classify or re-classify information that has not previously been disclosed to the public after a request for it has been received under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) or the Privacy Act of 1974.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: The FOIA Office, Office of the U.S. Trade Representative, 600 17th Street, NW., Washington, DC 20508. The telephone number is (202) 395-3419.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Executive Order 12958 ("the Order") provides that heads of agencies that originate or handle classified information shall designate one or more senior agency officials to carry out certain duties and responsibilities under the Order. On May 10, 2001, U.S. Trade Representative Robert Zoellick designated the position of General Counsel as a "Senior Agency Official" pursuant to the provisions of section 5.6 of the Order. The General Counsel shall have the authority to classify or re-classify information after a request has been received under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552, or the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. 552a, so long as that information has not previously been disclosed to the public. Such classification or re-classification shall be done in a manner that meet the requirements of the Order and on a document-by-document basis.

Sybia Harrison,

Agency FOIA Officer.

DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION

Federal Aviation Administration

Aviation Rulemaking Advisory Committee; General Aviation Certification and Operations Issues— New Task

AGENCY: Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), DOT.

ACTION: Notice of new task assignment for the Aviation Rulemaking Advisory Committee (ARAC).

SUMMARY: The FAA assigned the Aviation Rulemaking Advisory Committee a new task to evaluate and develop requirements for improved handling of stall characteristics in small airplanes. This notice is to inform the public of this ARAC activity.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mike Dahl, Federal Aviation Administration, Central Region Headquarters, 901 Locust, Kansas City, Missouri 64106, (816) 329-4110. Mike.dahl@faa.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

The FAA established the Aviation Rulemaking Advisory Committee to provide advice and recommendations to the FAA Administrator on the FAA's rulemaking activities with respect to aviation-related issues. This includes obtaining advice and recommendations on the FAA's commitments to harmonize Title 14 of the Code of Federal Regulations (14 CFR) with its partners in Europe and Canada.

The Task

- Review Subpart B of part 23 and develop requirements for improved handling of stall characteristics in small airplanes. Items to be addressed in the ARAC review include:

1. Stall Characteristics and spin resistance.
2. Stall accidents and prevention methods.
3. Harmonization with similar requirements found in JAR-23.

- Prepare a draft Notice of Proposed Rulemaking (NPRM). The NPRM should include the preamble and rule language along with any supporting legal analysis.

Schedule: This task is to be completed no later than December 10, 2001.

ARAC Acceptance of Task

ARAC accepted the task and assigned the task to the newly formed Stall Characteristics Harmonization Working Group, General Aviation Certification and Operations Issues. The working group will serve as staff to ARAC and assist in the analysis of the assigned task. ARAC must review and approve the working group's recommendations. If ARAC accepts the working group's recommendations, it will forward them to the FAA. Recommendations that are received from ARAC will be submitted to the agency's Rulemaking Management Council to address the availability of resources and prioritization.
