Lanier Clothes Division of Oxford Industries, Inc., et al., Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Notice of Certification Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on March 7, 2001, applicable to workers of Lanier Clothes, Greenville, Georgia. The notice was published in the Federal Register on April 5, 2001 (66 FR 18117).

At the request of the company, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in the fusing of men's suits. New information shows that worker separations occurred at the Oxford Transport facility of Oxford Industries, Inc., Buford, Georgia. The Buford Georgia facility provides administrative support services to the subject firms' production facilities, including Lanier Clothes.

Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to include the workers of the Oxford Transport facility of Oxford Industries, Buford, Georgia, and to correctly identify the subject firm title name to read Lanier Clothes, Division of Oxford Industries, Inc., Greenville, Georgia.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Lanier Clothes, Division of Oxford Industries, Inc., Greenville, Georgia who were adversely affected by increased imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-38,657 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Lanier Clothes, Division of Oxford Industries, Inc., Greenville, Georgia (TA-W-38,657) engaged in fusing operations, and workers of Oxford Transport, Oxford Industries, Inc., Buford, Georgia (TA-W-38,657A) who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after February 19, 2001, through March 7, 2003, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC this 31st day of May, 2001.

Investigations Regarding Certifications of Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

Petitions have been filed with the Secretary of Labor under section 221(a) of the Trade Act of 1974 ("the Act") and are identified in the Appendix to this notice. Upon receipt of these petitions, the Director of the Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance, Employment and Training Administration, has instituted investigations pursuant to section 221(a) of the Act.

The purpose of each of the investigations is to determine whether the workers are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under title II, chapter 2, of the Act. The investigations will further relate, as appropriate, to the determination of the date on which total or partial separations began or threatened to begin and the subdivision of the firm involved.

The petitions or any other persons showing a substantial interest in the subject matter of the investigations may request a public hearing, provided such request is filed in writing with the Director, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance, at the address shown below, not later than June 25, 2001.

Interested persons are invited to submit written comments regarding the subject matter of the investigations to the Director, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance, at the address shown below, not later than June 25, 2001.

The petitions filed in this case are available for inspection at the Office of the Director, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance, Employment and Training Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, Room C-5311, 200 Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20210.

Signed at Washington, DC this 30th day of April, 2001.
