BILLING CODE 4410-15-M

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Notice of Lodging of Consent Decree Pursuant to the Clean Water Act, the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act; and the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act

Consistent with Departmental policy, 28 CFR 50.7, notice is hereby given that a proposed Consent Decree in United States and the South Carolina Department of Health and Environmental Control ("SCDHEC") v. Macalloy Corporation (D. S.C.), Civil Action No. 2:99-4234-18, was lodged with the United States District Court for the District of South Carolina on June 26, 2001. This decree resolves the potential liability of Macalloy alleged by the United States under Sections 309 and 402 of the Clean Water Act, 33 U.S.C. 1319 and 1342; Section 3008(g) of the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, 42 U.S.C. 6928(g); and Section 48-1-330 of the South Carolina Pollution Control Act ("SCPCA"), S.C. Code Ann. § 48-1-330, and dismisses without prejudice claims under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act ("CERCLA"), 42 U.S.C. 9601-9675. The proposed Decree provides that Macalloy will pay $300,000 from existing funds, with interest over time, and $900,000 additional from money currently held as a RCRA financial assurance, when the money becomes available. Macalloy is also required to control surface water discharges.

The Department of Justice will receive, for a period of thirty (30) days from the date of this publication, comments relating to the proposed Consent Decree. Comments should be addressed to the Assistant Attorney General for the Environment and Natural Resources Division, U.S. Department of Justice, P.O. Box 7611, Washington, D.C. 20044; and refer to United States and the South Carolina Department of Health and Environmental Control ("SCDHEC") v. Macalloy Corporation (D. S.C.), DOJ Ref. #90-5-1-1-4431.

The proposed settlement agreement may be examined at the Office of the United States Attorney, Charleston, South Carolina and at the office of the Environmental Protection Agency, Region 4, Atlanta Federal Center, 61 Forsyth Street, SW, Atlanta, GA 30303-3104. A copy of the proposed Consent Decree may be obtained by mail from the Department of Justice Consent Decree Library, P.O. Box 7611, Washington, D.C. 20044. In requesting a copy please refer to the referenced case and enclose a check in the amount of $8 (Consent Decree only: 32 pgs) or $9.50 (Consent Decree with Appendices) (25 cents per page reproduction costs), payable to the Consent Decree Library.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

[AAG/A Order No. 238-2001]

Privacy Act of 1974; System of Records

Pursuant to the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 552a), the Department of Justice (DOJ), Civil Division, proposes to modify the following system of records previously published in full text in the Federal Register on February 20, 1998 (63 FR 8665): Civil Division Case File System, Justice/CIV-001.

The Civil Division is adding two new routine uses to this system of records. Specifically, the Civil Division will add a new routine use to permit disclosure of information relating to qualified claimants in its Radiation Exposure Compensation Act Program files to the Department of Labor to adjudicate claims for supplemental compensation and benefits to these claimants under the Energy Employees Occupational Injury Compensation Program Act, Pub. L. 106-398, 114 Stat. 1654, Title XXXVI (2000), 42 U.S.C. 7384 et seq. In addition, the Civil Division is adding a routine use for disclosure to contractors when necessary to accomplish an agency function related to this system of records.

For public convenience, all existing routine uses are published along with the two new proposed routine uses.

Title 5 U.S.C. 552a(e)(4)(11) provides that the public be given a 30-day period in which to comment on proposed new routine use disclosures. The Office of Management and Budget (OMB), which has oversight responsibilities under the Act, requires a 40-day period in which to conclude its review of any proposal to add new routine use disclosures or make other major modifications.

You may submit any comments (by 30 days from the publication date of this notice). The public, OMB, and the Congress are invited to send written comments to Mary Cahill, Management Analyst, Management and Planning Staff, Justice Management Division, Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530 (Room 1400 National Place Building). If no comments are received, the proposal will be implemented without further notice in the Federal Register.

In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552a(r), the Department has provided a report to OMB and the Congress on the proposed new routine uses.

Dated: July 3, 2001.
