

centers where existing transportation access and visitor services are relatively unconstrained and adequate, and (2) building capacity throughout the rest of the region to prepare for development when access improves. The second action alternative emphasizes one focal point in the region—the crossroads of the NCHA—for capturing, informing and dispersing visitors. In addition, this alternative would provide for dispersed, but less extensive, financial sport for community-based initiatives to construct interpretive displays or centers.

The EIS will assess the impacts of the alternatives. A scoping meeting will be scheduled and notice will be made of the meeting through a broad public mailing and publication in the local newspapers.

If you correspond using the internet, please include your name and return address in your e-mail message. Our practice is to make comments, including names and home addresses of respondents, available for the public review. Individual respondents may request that we withhold their home address from the record, which we will honor to the extent allowable by law. There also may be circumstances in which we would withhold from the record a respondent's identity, as allowable by law. If you wish us to withhold your name and/or address, you must state this prominently at the beginning of your comment. However, we will not consider anonymous comments. We will make all submissions from organizations or businesses, and from individuals identifying themselves as representatives or officials of organizations or businesses, available for public inspection in their entirety.
