SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Does This Notice Apply to Me?

This action is directed to the public in general. This action may, however, be of interest to all parties interested in FOSTTA and hearing more about the perspectives of the States and Tribes on EPA programs and the information exchange regarding important issues related to human health and environmental exposure to toxics. Since other entities may also be interested, the Agency has not attempted to describe all the specific entities that may be affected by this action. However, in the interest of time and efficiency, the meetings are structured to provide maximum opportunity for state, tribal, and EPA participants to discuss items on the predetermined agenda. At the discretion of the chair, an effort will be made to accommodate participation by observers attending the proceedings. If you have any questions regarding the applicability of this action to a particular entity, consult the technical people listed under FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT.

III. Purpose of Meeting

As part of FOSTTA, the Chemical Information and Management Project focuses on EPA's Chemical Right-to-Know Program and works to develop a more coordinated effort involving federal, state, and tribal agencies. The Pollution Prevention Project promotes the prevention ethic across society, helping companies incorporate P2 approaches and techniques and integrating P2 into mainstream environmental activities at both the federal level and among the states. The Tribal Affairs Project concentrates on chemical and prevention issues that are most relevant to the tribes, including lead control and abatement, subsistence lifestyle, and hazard communications and outreach. Under the Emergency Planning and Community Right-to-Know Act, EPA, the states, and tribes share responsibility for handling toxic chemical release information and making it available to the public through the Toxics Release Inventory. Through the Toxics Release Inventory Project, EPA and the state TRI program staff have an opportunity to discuss what works and what does not in their respective programs and to share ideas for the future evolution of the program.

IV. Purpose of Meeting

This unit provides the tentative agenda items identified by NCSL, the states, and the tribes:

1. Update on the High Production Volume Challenge Program and the Voluntary Children's Chemical Evaluation Program (Chemical Information and Management Project)
2. Pollution Prevention Integration Opportunities (Pollution Prevention Project)
3. Lead Workshops/Guidance Documents (Toxics Release Inventory Project)
4. Tribal Risk Assessment and Subsistence Summit (Tribal Affairs Project)
5. Other topics as appropriate.

V. How Can I Participate in This Meeting?

You may submit a request to participate in this meeting in the mail or electronically to the names under the FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT. Atrazine; Availability of Preliminary Risk Assessment

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: This notice announces the availability of documents that were developed as part of EPA's pilot public participation process for making reregistration eligibility decisions for the organophosphate and certain other, non-organophosphate pesticides and for tolerance reassessments consistent with the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (FFDCA), as amended by the Food Quality Protection Act of 1996 (FQPA). These documents are the preliminary ecological fate and effects risk assessment and related documents for atrazine. This notice also starts a 60-day public comment period for the preliminary risk assessment. Comments are to be limited to issues directly associated with atrazine and raised by the risk assessment or other documents placed in the docket. By allowing access and opportunity for comment on the preliminary risk assessment, EPA is seeking to strengthen stakeholder involvement and help ensure that our decisions under FQPA are transparent and based on the best available information. The tolerance reassessment process will ensure that the United States continues to have the safest and most abundant food supply. The Agency cautions that risk assessments at this stage are preliminary only and that further refinements of the risk assessment may be appropriate for this pesticide. This document reflects only the work and analysis conducted as of the time it was produced and it is appropriate that, as new information becomes available and/or additional analyses are performed, the conclusions it contains may change. Concurrent with the Office of Pesticide Programs' release of the preliminary ecological fate and effects risk assessment for atrazine announced in this notice, EPA's Office of Water is publishing its draft aquatic life criteria document for atrazine elsewhere in this issue of the Federal Register.

DATES: Comments, identified by the docket control number OPP-34237A for atrazine, must be received on or before November 26, 2001.

ADDRESSES: Comments may be submitted by mail, electronically, or in person. Please follow the detailed instructions for each method as provided in Unit I. of the SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION. To ensure proper receipt by EPA, it is imperative that you identify the docket control number for atrazine in the subject line on the first page of your response.
