

Sheet No. 4I, to be effective November 1, 2001.

KMIGT states that the above-referenced tariff sheets reflect a negotiated rate contract effective November 1, 2001. The tariff sheets are being filed pursuant to section 36 of KMIGT's FERC Gas Tariff Fourth Revised Volume No. 1-A, and the procedures prescribed by the Commission in its December 31, 1996 "Order Accepting Tariff Filing Subject to Conditions", in Docket No. RP97-81 (77 FERC ¶ 61,350) and the Commission's Letter Orders dated March 28, 1997 and November 30, 2000 in Docket Nos. RP97-81-001, and RP01-70-000, respectively.

KMIGT states that a copy of this filing has been served upon all parties to this proceeding, KMIGT's customers and affected state commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's rules and regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with section 154.210 of the Commission's regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection. This filing may also be viewed on the web at <http://www.ferc.gov> using the "RIMS" link, select "Docket#" and follow the instructions (call 202-208-2222 for assistance). Comments, protests and interventions may be filed electronically via the Internet in lieu of paper. See, 18 CFR 385.2001(a)(1)(iii) and the instructions on the Commission's web site under the "e-Filing" link.

New York Independent System Operator, Inc.; Notice of Filing

November 5, 2001.

Take notice that on October 24, 2001, the New York Independent System Operator, Inc. (NYISO), at the Direction of its independent Board of Directors, made a filing with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (Commission) pursuant to section 206 of the Federal Power Act to continue the effectiveness of provisions in its Market Administration and Control Area Services Tariff (Services Tariff) regarding certain market power mitigation penalties.

The NYISO has requested that the Commission make the filing effective on November 1, 2001.

The NYISO has served a copy of the filing on all parties that have executed Service Agreements under the NYISO's Open-Access Transmission Tariff or Services Tariff, on the New York State Public Service Commission, on the electric utility regulatory agencies in New Jersey and Pennsylvania and on all parties in Docket No. ER01-2489-000. The NYISO has also emailed a copy of this filing to all of the subscribers to the NYISO's Technical Information Exchange list.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest such filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). All such motions and protests should be filed on or before November 14, 2001. Protests will be considered by the Commission to determine the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection. TransColorado Gas Transmission Co.; Notice of Compliance Filing

November 5, 2001.

Take notice that on October 25, 2001, TransColorado Gas Transmission Company (TransColorado) tendered for filing of its FERC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 1, Substitute Alternate Second Revised First Revised Sheet No. 247B, to be effective August 1, 2001.

TransColorado states that the filing is being made in compliance with the Commission's October 12, 2001, order in Docket No. RP01-477-000.

On October 12, 2001, the Commission issued an order in Docket No. RP01-477-001 and -002 (the October 12th order) approving TransColorado's August 21, 2001, filing of alternate proposed Sheet No. 247B, subject to TransColorado filing, within 20 days, a revised tariff sheet to provide that: (1) TransColorado will accrue and credit interest, using the interest rate set out in 18 CFR 154.501(d), on penalty revenues beginning from the collection date until the date refunds are made and (2) the penalty revenues will be credited to shippers within 90 days after the end of each calendar year.

TransColorado states that a copy of this filing has been served upon TransColorado's customers, the Colorado Public Utilities Commission and New Mexico Public Utilities Commission.

Any person desiring to protest said filing should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with section 385.211 of the Commission's rules and regulations. All such protests must be filed in accordance with section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.
