

Survey; OMB No. 0704—[To Be Determined].

Needs and Uses: The purpose of the information collection requirement is to obtain information to ascertain the level of satisfaction private sector industrial and federal users have with the products and services DSS provides. This survey is necessary to meet the requirements of the FY2000–2003 Defense Management Council (DMC) Performance Contract. The DMC Performance Contract requires the Defense Security Service (DSS) to develop and administer customer satisfaction surveys for each of its three primary business areas: the Personnel Security Investigations Program (PSI), the Industrial Security Program (ISP), and the Security Education and Training Program. DSS is also in the process of implementing the Government Performance and Results Act (GPRA) based initiatives, as recommended by GAO, which involves the development of performance measures and metrics as a way to identify and evaluate program outcomes. A key indicator of Agency and program performance is customer satisfaction. Thus, DSS is also conducting this survey to support the GPRA implementation process. Information obtained through this collection will be used for the agency's will be used for the agency's planning and programming processes. Survey will administered on-line via the Internet. Information will be collected and analyzed by the Hay Group.

Affected Public: Private Sector cleared DoD Contractor facilities.

Annual Burden Hours: 2,500 (~2,080 private sector and ~420 Federal & DoD).

Number of Respondents: 6,000 (5,000 private sector and 1,000 Federal & DoD).

Responses per Respondents: 1.

Average Burden per Response: 25 minutes.

Frequency: Biennial.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Summary of Information Collection

Respondents are private industry and federal users of DSS products and services and who have direct contact with DSS personnel. The new DSS form records customer perceptions of the level of the quality, usefulness and professionalism of the goods and services delivered. The information, which will be collected electronically, will be used for agency and program level planning, programming and budgeting decisions as well as to comply with DoD's Defense Management Counsel, GPRA, and GAO requirements. If the information is not collected, DSS will be missing vital information necessary to plan, program and respond to customer's and DoD's needs well.
