

Survey; OMB No. 0704—[To Be Determined].

Needs and Uses: The purpose of the information collection requirement is to obtain information to ascertain the level of satisfaction private sector industrial and federal users have with the products and services DSS provides. This survey is necessary to meet the requirements of the FY2000–2003 Defense Management Council (DMC) Performance Contract. The DMC Performance Contract requires the Defense Security Service (DSS) to develop and administer customer satisfaction surveys for each of its three primary business areas: the Personnel Security Investigations Program (PSI), the Industrial Security Program (ISP), and the Security Education and Training Program. DSS is also in the process of implementing the Government Performance and Results Act (GPRA) based initiatives, as recommended by GAO, which involves the development of performance measures and metrics as a way to identify and evaluate program outcomes. A key indicator of Agency and program performance is customer satisfaction. Thus, DSS is also conducting this survey to support the GPRA implementation process. Information obtained through this collection will be used for the agency's will be used for the agency's planning and programming processes. Survey will administered on-line via the Internet. Information will be collected and analyzed by the Hay Group.

Affected Public: Private Sector cleared DoD Contractor facilities.

Annual Burden Hours: 2,500 (~2,080 private sector and ~420 Federal & DoD).

Number of Respondents: 6,000 (5,000 private sector and 1,000 Federal & DoD).

Responses per Respondents: 1.

Average Burden per Response: 25 minutes.

Frequency: Biennial.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Summary of Information Collection

Respondents are private industry and federal users of DSS products and services and who have direct contact with DSS personnel. The new DSS form records customer perceptions of the level of the quality, usefulness and professionalism of the goods and services delivered. The information, which will be collected electronically, will be used for agency and program level planning, programming and budgeting decisions as well as to comply with DoD's Defense Management Counsel, GPRA, and GAO requirements. If the information is not collected, DSS will be missing vital information necessary to plan, program and respond to customer's and DoD's needs well.

[Docket No. RP02-30-000]

Algonquin Gas Transmission Company; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

November 6, 2001.

Take notice that on October 31, 2001, Algonquin Gas Transmission Company (Algonquin) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Fourth Revised Volume No. 1, Twelfth Revised Sheet No. 40, to become effective on December 1, 2001.

Algonquin is filing to revise its Fuel Reimbursement Percentages ("FRPs") for the calendar period beginning December 1, 2001, pursuant to section 32 of the General Terms and Conditions of its FERC Gas Tariff. Algonquin states that, based on the latest actual annual data for Company Use Gas and throughput quantities for twelve month period ended July 31, 2001, the FRPs have increased slightly, by 0.01% in the FRP for the Winter period and by 0.21% for the non-Winter period.

Algonquin further states that it is submitting the calculation of the deferral allocation, pursuant to section 32.5(c) which provides that Algonquin will calculate surcharges or refunds designed to amortize the net monetary value of the balance in the FRQ Deferred Account at the end of the previous accumulation period. Algonquin states that, for the period August 1, 2000 through July 31, 2001, the FRQ Deferred Account resulted in a net debit balance that will be recovered as a surcharge to Algonquin's customers, based on the allocation of the account balance over the actual throughput during the accumulation period, exclusive of backhauls.

Algonquin states that copies of this filing were mailed to all affected customers of Algonquin and interested state commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's rules and regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with section 154.210 of the Commission's regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection. This filing may also be viewed on the web at <http://www.ferc.gov> using the "RIMS" link, select "Docket#" and follow the instructions (call 202-208-2222 for assistance). Comments, protests and interventions may be filed electronically via the Internet in lieu of paper. See, 18 CFR 385.2001(a)(1)(iii) and the instructions on the Commission's web site under the "e-Filing" link.
