

accessible to individuals with mobility impairments, including those who use wheelchairs.

On Tuesday, April 9th, there will be an opportunity beginning at 7 a.m. for the public to register for a public comment period. The Commission will be addressed on options for parental involvement in special education. There will be question and answer periods for the commissioners and a guest speaker presentation. On Wednesday, April 10, the commissioners will continue discussion on the subject of perspectives of parents and educators serving children with disabilities, a case study of the importance of leadership at the school-level in serving children at-risk of academic failure, and a continuation of discussion on options for parental involvement in special education.

Records are kept of all Commission proceedings, and are available for public inspection at President's Commission on Excellence in Special Education, 80 F Street, NW., Suite 408, Washington, DC 20208 from the hours of 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. (EST). This notice will not meet the 15-day FACA requirement for announcing meetings in the Federal Register however a previous notice was printed indicating the date of the upcoming meeting. The notice gives the public more information about the agenda and actual location of the meeting that was not available at the first printing.

BILLING CODE 4000-01-M

DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY

Federal Energy Regulatory Commission

[Docket Nos. ER02-725-000, ER02-725-001]

Great Plains Power Inc.; Notice of Issuance of Order

March 29, 2002.

Great Plains Power Inc. (GPP) submitted for filing a rate schedule under which GPP will engage in the sales of capacity, energy and certain ancillary services at market-based rates and for the reassignment of transmission capacity. GPP also requested waiver of various Commission regulations. In particular, GPP requested that the Commission grant blanket approval under 18 CFR Part 34 of all future issuances of securities and assumptions of liability by GPP.

On March 27, 2002, pursuant to delegated authority, the Director, Office of Markets, Tariffs and Rates-Central, granted requests for blanket approval under Part 34, subject to the following:

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest the blanket approval of issuances of securities or assumptions of liability by GPP should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214).

Absent a request to be heard in opposition within this period, GPP is authorized to issue securities and assume obligations or liabilities as a guarantor, indorser, surety, or otherwise in respect of any security of another person; provided that such issuance or assumption is for some lawful object within the corporate purposes of GPP, compatible with the public interest, and is reasonably necessary or appropriate for such purposes.

The Commission reserves the right to require a further showing that neither public nor private interests will be adversely affected by continued approval of GPP's issuances of securities or assumptions of liability.

Notice is hereby given that the deadline for filing motions to intervene or protests, as set forth above, is April 26, 2002.

Copies of the full text of the Order are available from the Commission's Public Reference Branch, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426. The Order may also be viewed on the Internet at <http://www.ferc.fed.us/online/rims.htm> (call 202-208-2222 for assistance).

Comments, protests, and interventions may be filed electronically via the internet in lieu of paper. See, 18 CFR 385.2001(a)(1)(iii) and the instructions on the Commission's web site at <http://www.ferc.fed.us/efi/doorbell.htm>.

Mirant Energy Trading, L.L.C.; Notice of Issuance of Order

March 29, 2002.

Mirant Energy Trading, L.L.C. (MET) submitted for filing a rate schedule under which MET will engage in the sales of capacity, energy and certain ancillary services at market-based rates and for the reassignment of transmission capacity. MET also requested waiver of various Commission regulations. In particular, MET requested that the Commission grant blanket approval under 18 CFR Part 34 of all future issuances of securities and assumptions of liability by MET.

On March 28, 2002, pursuant to delegated authority, the Director, Office of Markets, Tariffs and Rates-Central, granted requests for blanket approval under Part 34, subject to the following:

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest the blanket approval of issuances of securities or assumptions of liability by MET should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214).

Absent a request to be heard in opposition within this period, MET is authorized to issue securities and assume obligations or liabilities as a guarantor, indorser, surety, or otherwise in respect of any security of another person; provided that such issuance or assumption is for some lawful object within the corporate purposes of MET, compatible with the public interest, and is reasonably necessary or appropriate for such purposes.
