

OPPT to increase understanding and improve collaboration on toxics and pollution prevention issues and to continue a dialogue on how federal environmental programs can best be implemented among the states, tribes, and EPA.

The fall FOSTTA meeting is scheduled October 21–22, 2002.

III. Purpose of Meeting

The FOSTTA representatives and EPA will collaborate on environmental protection and chemical and prevention issues. The tentative agenda items identified by the states and the tribes follow:

1. Pilot project ideas for interfacing environment and public health (CIMP).
2. How to integrate the High Production Volume Challenge Program/Voluntary Children's Chemical Evaluation Program data with existing tools (e.g., risk screening environmental indicators) (CIMP).
3. The cumulative risk exposure initiative (CIMP).
4. Future directions for pollution prevention incentives for state grant programs (P2).
5. Pollution prevention and compliance assistance (P2).
6. Tribal risk assessment (TAP).
7. Tribal science council (TAP).

During the first half hour of the plenary session, ECOS and NTEC will discuss their plans for interacting with FOSTTA. At the remainder of the plenary, another topic of mutual interest to the approximately 30 state and tribal leaders will be discussed.
