SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

Investment Technology, Inc., File No. 500-1; Order of Suspension of Trading

April 22, 2002.

It appears to the Securities and Exchange Commission that there is a lack of current and accurate information concerning the securities of Investment Technology Inc. ("Investment Technology") because of questions regarding the accuracy of assertions by Investment Technology, and by others, in documents sent to and statements made to market makers of the stock of Investment Technology, other brokers and dealers, and to investors concerning, among other things: (1) the company's purported acquisitions of, and mergers with, various companies and businesses; (2) the status of the company's current financial condition and business operations; (3) the identity and background of the company's control persons; and (4) the company's profit growth and stock price appreciation.

The Commission is of the opinion that the public interest and the protection of investors require a suspension of trading in the securities of the above listed company.

Therefore, it is ordered, pursuant to Section 12(k) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, that trading in the above listed company is suspended for the period beginning at 9:30 a.m. EST, April 22, 2002 and terminating at 11:59 p.m. EST, on May 3, 2002.

By the Commission.

Margaret H. McFarland,
Deputy Secretary.

OFFICE OF THE UNITED STATES TRADE REPRESENTATIVE

[Docket No. WTO/DS-204]

WTO Dispute Settlement Regarding Telecommunications Trade Barriers in Mexico

AGENCY: Office of the United States Trade Representative.

ACTION: Notice; request for comments.

SUMMARY: The Office of the United States Trade Representative ("USTR") is providing notice that, on April 17, 2002, the Dispute Settlement Body ("DSB") of the World Trade Organization ("WTO") established a dispute settlement panel to examine U.S. claims regarding certain Mexican Government measures affecting basic telecommunications services and the consistency of such measures with Mexico's commitments under the General Agreement on Trade in Services ("GATS"). The United States requested establishment of a panel on February 13, 2002. USTR invites written comments from the public concerning the issues raised in this dispute.

DATES: Although the USTR will accept any comments received during the course of the dispute settlement proceedings, comments should be submitted on or before May 25, 2002 to be assured of timely consideration by USTR.

ADDRESSES: Submit comments to Sandy McKinzy, Monitoring and Enforcement Unit, Room 122, Office of the United States Trade Representative, 600 17th Street, NW, Washington, DC, 20508, Attn: Mexico Telecommunications Dispute. Telephone: (202) 395-3582.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Demetrios J. Marantis, Associate General Counsel, Office of the United States Trade Representative, 600 17th Street, NW, Washington, DC, (202) 395-7305.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Pursuant to section 127(b) of the Uruguay Round Agreements Act (URAA) (19 U.S.C. 3537(b)(1)), the USTR is providing notice that, on April 17, 2002, the WTO DSB established a dispute settlement panel at the request of the United States to examine Mexican measures affecting basic telecommunications services. The United States requested establishment of a WTO dispute settlement panel on February 13, 2002. The United States previously invited comments from the public after the United States requested consultations with Mexico regarding telecommunications trade barriers in August 2000.<sup>1</sup> USTR is hereby providing additional opportunity for comment on the issues identified in the February 13, 2002 panel request and described below.

Major Issues Raised by the United States

Mexico maintains measures—largely as a result of its "International Long Distance Rules"—that the United States considers to be inconsistent with

Mexico's commitments under the GATS. For instance the current "interconnection" rate that all Mexican carriers must charge their foreign counterparts for connecting their calls to Mexico is 13.5 U.S. cents per minute. This rate exceeds the cost of providing this service by over 200 percent even though Mexico committed under the WTO Reference Paper to ensure that its dominant phone company provides "interconnection" at rates that are "basadas en costos," or "based on cost."

Moreover, Mexican measures grant Mexico's dominant phone company the exclusive authority to negotiate this cross-border "interconnection" rate. Such measures empower Mexico's dominant phone company to set monopoly rates even though Mexico has an obligation under the WTO Reference Paper to maintain measures to prevent this company from engaging in anti-competitive practices.

Mexico's measures also discriminate against foreign suppliers by preventing them from sending calls into and out of Mexico over leased lines. However, Mexico has committed under the GATS to permit the supply of basic telecommunications services over leased lines on a national treatment basis and committed under the GATS Annex on Telecommunications to ensure that foreign basic telecommunications service suppliers have access to and use of leased lines to provide scheduled services.

Procedural Background

On August 17, 2000, the United States requested consultations with the Government of Mexico pursuant to Article 4 of the WTO Understanding on Rules and Procedures Governing the Settlement of Disputes (DSU) and Article XXIII of the GATS regarding a wide range of measures affecting telecommunications services. The United States and Mexico held these consultations on October 10, 2000. The consultations provided helpful clarifications but did not resolve the dispute.

On November 10, 2000, the United States requested the establishment of a panel pursuant to Article 6 of the DSU. The DSB considered this request at its meeting on December 12, 2000, at which time the Government of Mexico objected to the establishment of a panel. On November 10, 2000, the United States also requested additional consultations with the Government of Mexico pursuant to Article 4 of the DSU and Article XXIII of the GATS regarding additional measures affecting telecommunications services. These consultations, held on January 16, 2001,
