Bonneville Power Administration; Notice of Filing

April 26, 2002.

Take notice that on February 21, 2002, Bonneville Power Administration (Bonneville) has replaced Attachment D, Methodology for Completing a System Impact Study, to Bonneville's Open Access Transmission Tariff (OATT). Bonneville now seeks a declaratory order finding that its OATT, with the replacement Attachment D, continues to maintain its reciprocity status.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing should file with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding.

Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. All such motions or protests should be filed on or before the comment date, and, to the extent applicable, must be served on the applicant and on any other person designated on the official service list.
