Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration

[Docket No. FMCSA-2002-12162]

Commercial Driver's License Standards; Exemption Application From Joest Racing USA, Inc.

AGENCY: Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration (FMCSA), DOT.

ACTION: Notice of application for exemption; request for comments.

SUMMARY: The FMCSA has received an application from Joest Racing USA, Inc. (petitioner), a private carrier based in Tucker, GA, for an exemption from the commercial driver's licensing (CDL) requirements. Petitioner states an exemption is necessary to enable four drivers it employs to engage in interstate commerce transporting private property, comprised of race cars and related parts. Petitioner points out that its drivers are citizens and residents of Germany who would only enter the United States on average three times a year, for up to three months per trip. In support of its application, petitioner asserts that granting the exemption would have no impact on public safety because the drivers involved presently hold valid Germany-issued CDLs. In addition, petitioner states the comprehensive training and testing, that drivers holding German CDLs must undergo, ensures a greater level of safety. FMCSA invites interested parties to submit comments on the merits of the application, including whether FMCSA should grant or deny it.

DATES: Comments must be submitted by June 13, 2002.

ADDRESSES: You may submit your comments to the Docket Clerk, Docket No. FMCSA-2002-12162, U.S. Department of Transportation, Dockets Management System (DMS), Room PL-401 (Plaza Level), 400 Seventh Street, SW., Washington, DC 20590. Electronic Access and Filing

Background

Section 4007 of the Transportation Equity Act for the 21st Century (TEA-21) (Public Law 105-178, 112 Stat. 107, now codified at 49 U.S.C. 31315 and 31316), requires FMCSA to publish a notice in the Federal Register for each exemption requested explaining that the request has been filed, provide the public with an opportunity to inspect the safety analysis and any other relevant information known to the agency, and provide an opportunity to comment on the request. Prior to granting a request for an exemption, the agency must publish a notice in the Federal Register identifying the person or class of persons who will receive the exemption, the provisions from which the person will be exempt, the effective period, and all terms and conditions of the exemption. The terms and conditions established by FMCSA must ensure that the exemption will likely achieve a level of safety that is equivalent to, or greater than, the level that would be achieved by complying with the regulation.

On December 8, 1998, FMCSA published an interim final rule implementing section 4007 of TEA-21 (63 FR 67600). The regulations at 49 CFR part 381 establish the procedures to be followed to request waivers and to apply for exemptions from the FMCSRs, and the provisions used to process them.

Exemption Request

Joest Racing USA, Inc., a private motor carrier of property as defined by 49 CFR 390.5, filed an application for an exemption from the commercial driver's licensing rules in 49 CFR part 383, that would allow drivers—Peter Ungar, Michael Schlemmer, Udo Wilhelm, and Hubert Neumann—to operate two commercial motor vehicles (CMVs) within the United States. According to its application, Joest has no employees in the United States; for economic reasons, its German CMV drivers double as race car mechanics; the value of its race cars is over $1 million each; it requires CMV drivers that are professionally trained in Germany in the loading and bracing of racing cars and parts; and to employ U.S. commercial drivers and train them would require considerable time and expense. A copy of the application for exemption is in the docket.

FMCSA is responsible for the administration and enforcement of the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Regulations (FMCSRs), including the commercial driver's license requirements. Section 383.23(a)(2) states that no person shall operate a CMV unless such person possesses a CDL issued by his or her jurisdiction of domicile. There is an exception to this rule which states that CMV drivers domiciled in other jurisdictions that do not test drivers and issue licenses in accordance with Federal regulations must obtain a nonresident CDL from a State which does comply with the Federal testing and licensing standards.

Joest Racing USA, Inc. seeks an exemption because the drivers it employs are citizens and residents of Germany. These drivers are not able to obtain nonresidential CDLs in the United States because the States generally do not issue nonresidential CDLs to foreign drivers. The drivers hold valid CDLs issued by German authorities that meet license testing and driver qualification standards, including medical examinations, which are comparable with U.S. standards, and they have behind the wheel experience operating Joest's special type of CMV. Joest has two CMVs which are used to transport its private property (i.e., race cars and related equipment) around the United States to participate in the "American Le Mans Series" racing circuit. The four drivers are only in the United States during certain periods.

Joest Racing USA, Inc. does not anticipate any adverse safety impacts from this exemption due to the fact that the German CDLs and German authorities adhere to very strict testing procedures.

There will always be two qualified drivers in each motor vehicle. The drivers employed by Joest Racing USA, Inc. are fully qualified CMV operators with valid German CDLs. The company ensures that the qualifications are maintained and all current German laws are followed. Due to strict regulations in Germany for drivers holding German CDLs, Joest Racing USA, Inc. believes there will be a greater level of safety than by using United States drivers unfamiliar with its special type of truck/trailer.

Drivers applying to obtain a German CDL must take both a knowledge test and skills test before a license to operate CMVs is issued. Prior to taking the tests, drivers must complete approximately 40 hours of driving lessons. The required driving lessons are generally considered by licensing experts to be among the most difficult in the world. Therefore, the process for obtaining a CDL in Germany is considered to be comparable to, or as effective as the requirements of Part 383 of the Federal requirements and adequately assess the driver's ability to operate CMVs in the United States.

Once a driver is granted a German CDL he is allowed to drive any CMV currently allowed on German roads. There are no limits to types or weights of vehicles that may be operated by the drivers. The drivers affected by the exemption will be operating tractor-trailer units. The drivers expect to operate CMVs through the States of Alabama, Arkansas, Arizona, California, Colorado, Florida, Georgia, Iowa, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Missouri, Mississippi, Nebraska, New Mexico, Nevada, New York, Ohio, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, and Wyoming.

Request for Comments

In accordance with 49 U.S.C. 31315(b)(4) and 31136(e), FMCSA is requesting public comment from all interested persons on this exemption application. All comments received before the close of business on the comment closing date will be considered and will be available for examination in the docket at the location listed under the address section of this notice. Comments received after the comment closing date will be filed in the public docket and will be considered to the extent practicable, but FMCSA may make its decision at any time after the close of the comment period. In addition to late comments, FMCSA will also continue to file, in the public docket, relevant information that becomes available after the comment closing date. Interested persons should continue to examine the public docket for new material.
