

non-infringement. The motion was opposed by Honeywell and supported by the Commission investigative attorney (IA). On February 4, 2002, the ALJ issued Order No. 61, a portion of which was an ID granting Hyosung's motion for summary determination of no infringement, and a portion of which was an order denying Hyosung's motion as to patent invalidity. The ALJ found that respondents had failed to prove by clear and convincing evidence that the claims at issue of the "976 patent were invalid due to indefiniteness, lack of enablement, or failure to provide an adequate written description. Respondents filed a petition for review of the ID on February 19, 2002. Complainant and the IA filed appeals of the order denying summary determination on the same date.

On March 21, 2002, the Commission determined to review only the ALJ's decision on the issue of indefiniteness under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph. The issues not under review became the Commission's final determination under Commission rule 210.42(h)(2).

The authority for the Commission's determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 190, as amended, 19 U.S.C. 1337, and in sections 210.24 and 210.45 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 19 CFR 210.24, 210.45.

By order of the Commission.

Issued: May 17, 2002.

Secretary.
