ACTION: Notice of Preliminary Results of Changed Circumstances Countervailing Duty Administrative Review.

SUMMARY: On September 28, 2001, the Department of Commerce (Department) published a notice of initiation in the above-named case. As a result of this review, the Department preliminarily finds that the new name of Inchon Iron & Steel Co., Ltd. (Inchon) is INI Steel Company (INI).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Applicable Statute and Regulations

Unless otherwise indicated, all citations to the statute are references to the provisions effective January 1, 1995, the effective date of the amendments made to the Tariff Act of 1930 ("the Act") by the Uruguay Round Agreements Act ("URAA"). In addition, unless otherwise indicated, all citations to the Department's regulations are to the regulations at 19 CFR Part 351 (2001).

Background

The Department published on July 3, 2000, a Final Affirmative Countervailing Duty Determination: Structural Steel Beams From the Republic of Korea, 65 FR 41051, (Structural Beams); and published on August 14, 2000, the Notice of Countervailing Duty Order: Structural Steel Beams From the Republic of Korea, 65 FR 49542. The Department determined that Inchon was excluded from suspension of liquidation pursuant to that order because it received a de minimis net subsidy during the period of investigation. In an August 6, 2001, letter to the Department, INI notified the Department that as of August 1, 2001, Inchon's corporate name had changed to INI Steel Company. On September 28, 2001, the Department published a Notice of Initiation of Changed Circumstances Countervailing Duty Administrative Review, 66 FR 49641.

Scope of the Review

The products covered by this review include structural steel beams that are doubly-symmetric shapes, whether hot- or cold-rolled, drawn, extruded, formed or finished, having at least one dimension of at least 80 mm (3.2 inches or more), whether of carbon or alloy (other than stainless) steel, and whether or not drilled, punched, notched, painted, coated or clad. These products include, but are not limited to, wideflange beams ("W" shapes), bearing piles ("HP" shapes), standard beams ("S" or "I" shapes), and M-shapes.

All products that meet the physical and metallurgical descriptions provided above are within the scope of this investigation unless otherwise excluded. The following products are outside and/or specifically excluded from the scope of this investigation: structural steel beams greater than 400 pounds per linear foot or with a web or section height (also known as depth) over 40 inches.

The merchandise subject to this investigation is classified in the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States ("HTSUS") at subheadings: 7216.32.0000, 7216.33.0030, 7216.33.0060, 7216.33.0090, 7216.50.0000, 7216.61.0000, 7216.69.0000, 7216.91.0000, 7216.99.0000, 7228.70.3040, 7228.70.6000. Although the HTSUS subheadings are provided for convenience and Customs purposes, the written description of the merchandise subject to this proceeding is dispositive.

Preliminary Results

In determining that Inchon changed its name to INI, we reviewed documents submitted on the record, including: (1) the minutes of Inchon's shareholder's meeting; (2) official certification of name change registration; and (3) INI's business registration certificate. The minutes of the shareholder's meeting shows that the name change was approved under item two: "Topic of Bill of a Partial Amendment to Articles of Incorporation." Article 1, which refers to the name of the company, shows that, prior to the amendment, the name of the company was Inchon Iron & Steel Co., Ltd. and that, after the partial amendment to the Articles of Incorporation, the company's name is INI Steel Company. We also reviewed a translated copy of the official certification of name change that INI provided to the Inchon District Court on July 31, 2001. Finally, we reviewed INI's business registration certificate as issued on August 1, 2001 by the Inchon City Tax Office. This document states that the reason the document was issued was for a "change of company name."

Based upon the information on the record, we preliminarily determine that Inchon has changed its name to INI Steel company. If the final results of this review remain unchanged, we intend to update our instructions to U.S. Customs to reflect this name change, and INI (Inchon) will continue to be excluded from this order.

ACTION: Notice of initiation of process to revoke Export Trade Certificate of Review No. 84-00027.

SUMMARY: On October 9, 1984, the Secretary of Commerce issued an export trade certificate of review to N.B. Carson & Company, Inc. Because this certificate holder has failed to file an annual report as required by law the Department is initiating proceedings to revoke the certificate. This notice summarizes the notification letter sent to N.B. Carson & Company, Inc.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Jeffrey Anspacher, Director, Office of

Export Trading Company Affairs, International Trade Administration, (202) 482-5131. This is not a toll-free number.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Title III of the Export Trading Company Act of 1982 ("the Act") (15 U.S.C. 4011-21) authorizes the Secretary of Commerce to issue Export Trade Certificates of Review. The regulations implementing Title III ("the Regulations") are found at 15 CFR part 325. Pursuant to this authority, a Certificate of Review was issued on October 9, 1984 to N.B. Carson & Company, Inc.

A certificate holder is required by law (section 308 of the Act, 15 U.S.C. 4018) to submit to the Department of Commerce annual reports that update financial and other information relating to business activities covered by its certificate. The annual report is due within 45 days after the anniversary date of the issuance of the certificate of review (Sections 325.14 (a) and (b) of the Regulations). Failure to submit a complete annual report may be the basis for revocation. (Sections 325.10 (a) and 325.14 (c) of the Regulations).

The Department of Commerce sent to N.B. Carson & Company, Inc., on October 01, 2001, a letter containing annual report questions with a reminder that its annual report was due on November 23, 2001. Additional reminders were sent on March 25, 2002 and on April 11, 2002. The Department has received no written response to any of these letters.

On May 22, 2002, and in accordance with Section 325.10 (c)(1) of the Regulations, a letter was sent by certified mail to notify N.B. Carson & Company, Inc. that the Department was formally initiating the process to revoke its certificate. The letter stated that this action is being taken because of the certificate holder's failure to file an annual report.

In accordance with Section 325.10 (c)(2) of the Regulations, each certificate holder has thirty days from the day after its receipt of the notification letter in which to respond. The certificate holder is deemed to have received this letter as of the date on which this notice is published in the Federal Register. For good cause shown, the Department of Commerce can, at its discretion, grant a thirty-day extension for a response.

If the certificate holder decides to respond, it must specifically address the Department's statement in the notification letter that it has failed to file an annual report. It should state in detail why the facts, conduct, or circumstances described in the notification letter are not true, or if they are, why they do not warrant revoking the certificate. If the certificate holder does not respond within the specified period, it will be considered an admission of the statements contained in the notification letter (Section 325.10 (c)(2) of the Regulations).

If the answer demonstrates that the material facts are in dispute, the Department of Commerce and the Department of Justice shall, upon request, meet informally with the certificate holder. Either Department may require the certificate holder to provide the documents or information that are necessary to support its contentions (Section 325.10 (c)(3) of the Regulations).

The Department shall publish a notice in the Federal Register of the revocation or modification or a decision not to revoke or modify (Section 325.10(c)(4) of the Regulations). If there is a determination to revoke a certificate, any person aggrieved by such final decision may appeal to an appropriate U.S. district court within 30 days from the date on which the Department's final determination is published in the Federal Register (Sections 325.10(c)(4) and 325.11 of the Regulations).
