

and 587. Further, Transco contends that it cannot manually comply with Order Nos. 637 and 587. Transco contends that to address customer concerns regarding the trading fee for netting and trading, it proposes in the interim, to assess a trading fee based on the FT commodity rate, rather than the originally proposed IT rate. Transco included pro forma tariff sheets in its filing setting forth the interim trading fee. Transco proposes to file and move into effect these tariff sheets and the other 1line related tariff sheets filed in this proceeding for an April 1, 2003 implementation of 1Line. Transco also provided a proposed schedule identifying, among other things, the dates by which customer training and customer issues will be addressed under an April 1, 2003 implementation date.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE, Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed must be filed on or before June 7, 2002. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.
