

taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection. This filing may also be viewed on the web at <http://www.ferc.gov> using the "RIMS" link, select "Docket#" and follow the instructions (call 202-208-2222 for assistance). Comments, protests and interventions may be filed electronically via the Internet in lieu of paper. See, 18 CFR 385.2001(a)(1)(iii) and the instructions on the Commission's web site under the "e-Filing" link.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission by Sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, and the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission on this application if no petition to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a petition for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that an oral hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at hearing.

[Docket No. ER02-1447-001]

Virginia Electric and Power Company; Notice of Filing

April 24, 2002.

Editorial Note: Due to printing errors this document was omitted from the issue of Wednesday, May 1, 2002. It was referenced in the table of contents as appearing on page 21650. It is being correctly printed in its entirety.

Take notice that on April 11, 2002, Virginia Electric and Power Company, doing business as Dominion Virginia Power, tendered for filing a cover page to revise the proposed designation of an executed Interconnection Agreement between Dominion Virginia Power and Industrial Power Generating Corporation (Ingenco).

Dominion Virginia Power respectfully requests that the Commission allow the revised cover sheet to become effective on May 24, 2000, the date on which Dominion Virginia Power originally requested the Interconnection Agreement become effective.

Copies of the filing were served upon Ingenco and the Virginia State Corporation Commission.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing should file with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. All such motions or protests should be filed on or before the comment date, and, to the extent applicable, must be served on the applicant and on any other person designated on the official service list. The filing is available for review at the Commission or may be viewed on the Commission's web site at <http://www.ferc.gov> using the "RIMS" link, select "Docket #" and follow the instructions (call 202-208-2222 for assistance). Protests and interventions may be filed electronically via the Internet in lieu of paper; see 18 CFR 385.2001(a)(1)(iii) and the instructions on the Commission's web site under the "e-Filing" link.

Comment Date: May 2, 2002.

[Docket Nos. EL01-74-001 and ER01-2058-001]

Western Electricity Coordinating Council; Notice of Filing

May 24, 2002.

Take notice that on May 20, 2002, Western Electricity Coordinating Council (WECC) tendered for filing with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (Commission) the WECC Bylaws, Notice of Succession and Notice of Cancellation. WECC was established as a result of the merger of Western Systems Coordinating Council, Western Regional Transmission Association, and Southwest Regional Transmission Association.

This filing is made in accordance with the Commission's September 27, 2001 Order Granting Request to Transfer Programs and Directing Additional Filings, 96 FERC ¶ 61,348 (2001). It includes the WECC Bylaws, which have been modified consistent with the Commission's order. It also includes a Notice of Succession for the Unscheduled Flow Mitigation Plan and Reliability Management System contracts, which were previously administered by the WSCC and will now be administered by WECC. Finally, it includes a Notice of Cancellation of the Governing Agreements of WRTA and SWRTA.

Copies of the filing were served upon all parties in the above-captioned proceedings.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing should file with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE, Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. All such motions or protests should be filed on or before the comment date, and, to the extent applicable, must be served on the applicant and on any other person designated on the official service list. This filing is available for review at the Commission or may be viewed on the Commission's Web site at <http://www.ferc.gov> using the "RIMS" link, select "Docket #" and follow the instructions (call 202-208-2222 for assistance).
