SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The OCC is proposing to extend OMB approval of the following information collection:

Title: (MA)-Securities Offering Disclosure Rules—12 CFR 16.

OMB Number: 1557-0120.

Description: This submission covers an existing regulation and involves no change to the regulation or to the information collection. The OCC requests only that OMB extend its approval of the information collection.

The requirements in 12 CFR part 16 enable the OCC to perform its responsibilities relating to offerings of securities by national banks by providing the investing public with facts about the condition of the bank, the reasons for raising new capital, and the terms of the offering. Part 16 requires national banks to conform generally to Securities and Exchange Commission rules.

The collections of information in part 16 are as follows:

Sections 16.3 and 16.15 require a national bank to file its registration statement with the OCC.

Section 16.4 requires a national bank to submit certain communications not deemed an offer to the OCC.

Section 16.5 provides an exemption for items that satisfy the requirements of SEC Rule 144, which, in turn, requires certain filings.

Section 16.6 requires a national bank to file documents with the OCC and to make certain disclosures to purchasers in sales of nonconvertible debt.

Section 16.7 requires a national bank to file a notice with the OCC.

Section 16.8 requires a national bank to file offering documents with the OCC.

Section 16.15 requires a national bank to file a registration statement and sets forth content requirements for the registration statement.

Section 16.17 requires a national bank to file four copies of each document filed under part 16, and requires filers of amendments or revisions to underline or otherwise indicate clearly any changed information.

Section 16.18 requires a national bank to file an amended prospectus when the information in the current prospectus becomes stale, or when a change in circumstances makes the current prospectus incorrect.

Section 16.19 requires a national bank to submit a request to the OCC if it wishes to withdraw a registration statement, amendment, or exhibit.

Section 16.20 requires a national bank to file current and periodic reports as required by sections 12 and 13 of the Exchange Act (15 U.S.C. 78l and m) and SEC Regulation 15d (17 CFR 240.15d-1 through 240.15Aa-1).

Section 16.30 requires a national bank to include certain elements and follow certain procedures in any request to the OCC for a no-objection letter.

These information collection requirements ensure bank compliance with applicable Federal law, further bank safety and soundness, provide protections for banks, and further public policy interests.

Type of Review: Extension of a currently approved collection.

Affected Public: Businesses or other for-profit (national banks).

Estimated Number of Respondents: 101.

Estimated Total Annual Responses: 101.

Frequency of Response: On occasion.

Estimated Total Annual Burden: 2,333 hours.

Dated: May 29, 2002.

Mark J. Tenhundfeld,

Assistant Director, Legislative and Regulatory Activities Division.

Office of the Comptroller of the Currency

Agency Information Collection Activities: Submission for OMB Review; Comment Request

AGENCY: Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC), Treasury.

ACTION: Notice and request for comment.

SUMMARY: The OCC, as part of its continuing effort to reduce paperwork and respondent burden, invites the general public and other Federal agencies to take this opportunity to comment on a continuing information collection, as required by the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a respondent is not required to respond to, an information collection unless the information collection displays a currently valid OMB control number. The OCC is soliciting comment concerning its information collection titled, "International Regulation—12 CFR 28." The OCC also gives notice that it has sent the information collection to OMB for review and approval.

DATES: You should submit your comments to the OCC and the OMB Desk Officer by July 15, 2002.

ADDRESSES: You should direct comments to:

Communications Division, Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, Public Information Room, Mailstop 1-5, Attention: 1557-0102, 250 E Street, SW., Washington, DC 20219. FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: You can request additional information or a copy of the collection from Jessie Dunaway, OCC Clearance Officer, or Camille Dixon, (202) 874-5090, Legislative and Regulatory Activities Division, Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, 250 E Street, SW., Washington, DC 20219.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The OCC is proposing to extend OMB approval of the following information collection:

Title: International Regulation—12 CFR 28.

OMB Number: 1557-0102.

Description: This submission covers an existing regulation and involves no change to the regulation or to the information collection. The OCC requests only that OMB extend its approval of the information collection. The OCC's regulations at 12 CFR part 28 implement requirements imposed on national banks and Federal branches and agencies concerning international activities. The information collections in part 28 that are covered by this notice are as follows:

Section 28.3 requires a national bank to notify the OCC when it takes certain actions regarding its foreign operations.

Section 28.14 requires a foreign bank to designate one Federal branch or agency to maintain consolidated information for purposes of monitoring compliance with limitations based upon capital.

Section 28.15 requires a foreign bank with a Federal branch or agency to maintain records regarding its capital equivalency deposit (CED), including agreements entered into with the OCC and a depository bank regarding the CED, and liabilities requiring CED coverage. Section 28.15 also requires a foreign bank to apply to the OCC for exceptions to its rules regarding the CED.

Section 28.16 requires an uninsured Federal branch to maintain records regarding its deposits, such as the average of its deposits during the last 30 days, if the Federal branch seeks to accept deposits from types of depositors that are not listed in the regulation. Section 28.16 also requires a foreign bank to apply to the OCC for an exemption allowing its uninsured Federal branch to accept or maintain types of deposit accounts not listed in the regulation.

Section 28.18 requires a Federal branch or agency to comply with the record keeping and reporting requirements that apply to a national bank, as well as any additional requirements that may be prescribed by the OCC. It requires a Federal branch or agency to maintain records of its transactions separate from those of the parent foreign bank or other branches and agencies of that bank. It also requires the Federal branch or agency to provide the OCC with a copy of certain reports filed with other Federal regulatory agencies.

Section 28.20 requires a foreign bank that is subject to an asset maintenance requirement to keep records of assets maintained in the state in which the Federal branch or agency is located and records of liabilities on which the asset maintenance requirement is based.

Section 28.52 requires a national bank or District of Columbia bank to maintain records regarding any allocated transfer risk reserve for specified international assets.

Section 28.53 requires a national bank or District of Columbia bank to maintain records regarding its accounting for fees and administrative costs on restructured international loans.

These information collection requirements ensure bank compliance with applicable Federal law, further bank safety and soundness, provide protections for banks, and further public policy interests.

Type of Review: Extension of a currently approved collection.

Affected Public: Businesses or other for-profit.

Estimated Number of Respondents/Recordkeepers: 79.

Estimated Total Annual Responses: 130.

Frequency of Response: On occasion.

Estimated Total Annual Burden: 4,625 hours.

Dated: June 7, 2002.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

Section 13031 of the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (COBRA) of 1985 (19 U.S.C. 58c), as amended by the Miscellaneous Trade and Technical Corrections Act of 1999 (Public Law 106-36), directs the Commissioner of Customs to establish an advisory committee whose membership consists of representatives from the airline, cruise ship, and other transportation industries who may be subject to fees under 19 U.S.C. 58c.

The Committee will advise the Commissioner of Customs on issues relating to inspection services performed by the Customs Service, including issues pertaining to the time periods during which inspections should be performed, the proper number and deployment of inspection officers, and the amount of any proposed fees.

On February 8, 2000, Customs published a notice in the Federal Register (65 FR 6254) announcing the establishment of a COBRA Fee Advisory Committee, the criteria for membership, and requesting membership applications. In a notice published in the Federal Register (65 FR 38884) on June 22, 2000, Customs set forth amended criteria for membership in the Customs COBRA Fees Advisory Committee and requested that new applications for membership be submitted. A subsequent notice published in the Federal Register (65 FR 69993) on November 21, 2000, again amended membership criteria and extended the time within which membership applications were to be submitted.

This notice announces the first COBRA Fee Advisory Committee meeting. The meeting is scheduled for June 28, 2002, from 10 a.m. until 12 p.m., in room 6.4-B of the Ronald Reagan Building located at 1300 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20229.

The agenda for this meeting will cover issues pertaining to the performance of Customs inspection services. The meeting is open to the public; however, participation in the Committee's deliberations is limited to Committee members and Customs and Treasury Department staff. Interested parties, other than Advisory Committee
