

Nautilus' Order No. 637 pro forma compliance filing. Pursuant to Ordering Paragraph (B) of that order, Nautilus is not proposing an effective date for the revised tariff sheets at this time.

Nautilus states that a copy of this filing has been served upon its customers and interested state commissions.

Any person desiring to protest said filing should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Section 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such protests must be filed on or before July 2, 2002. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection. This filing may also be viewed on the web at <http://www.ferc.gov> using the "RIMS" link, select "Docket#" and follow the instructions (call 202-208-2222 for assistance). Comments, protests and interventions may be filed electronically via the Internet in lieu of paper. See, 18 CFR 385.2001(a)(1)(iii) and the instructions on the Commission's web site under the "e-Filing" link.

Transwestern states that on August 15, 2000, it submitted pro forma tariff sheets in compliance with the Commission's Order Nos. 637, 637-A, and 637-B issued in Docket Nos. RM98-10 and RM98-12 (Commission Orders). Transwestern states that it has recently held discussions with its customers on how to resolve the remaining issues in this proceeding. The enclosed tariff sheets represent Transwestern's proposal to address issues raised in protests in this proceeding and to incorporate suggestions made by customers. Transwestern states that in several instances, these tariff proposals exceed the requirements set forth in the Commission Orders, but represent matters of importance to Transwestern and its customers that are intertwined with the resolution of issues in this proceeding.

Transwestern states that its discussions with its customers regarding the August 15, 2000 compliance filing in this docket addressed the expressed concerns of those customers filing protests to specific aspects of Transwestern's filing. In addition, Transwestern states that certain provisions contained in the August 15, 2002 filing have been overtaken by subsequent events and are no longer required to comply with Order No. 637, et seq. (e.g., netting and trading provisions which were filed by Transwestern and accepted by the Commission in compliance with Order No. 587-L).

In the instant filing, Transwestern is withdrawing all of the pro forma tariff sheets filed on August 15, 2000 and is filing new pro forma tariff sheets which address the issues raised by those parties protesting Transwestern's August 15 filing and update Transwestern's filing to recognize the subsequent events which have occurred.

Any person desiring to protest said filing should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Section 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such protests must be filed on or before July 2, 2002. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection. This filing may also be viewed on the web at <http://www.ferc.gov>

Texas Eastern Transmission, LP; Notice of Intent To Prepare an Environmental Assessment for the Proposed M-1 Expansion Project and Request for Comments on Environmental Issues

June 25, 2002.

The staff of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC or Commission) will prepare an environmental assessment (EA) that will discuss the environmental impacts of the M-1 Expansion Project involving construction and operation of facilities by Texas Eastern Transmission, LP (Texas Eastern) in Monroe, Hinds, Copiah, Amite, Franklin, and Madison Counties, Mississippi, Colbert County, Alabama, and Giles and Wilson Counties, Tennessee.¹ These facilities would consist of about 33 miles of 36-inch diameter pipeline and 28,000 horsepower (hp) of additional compression. The EA will be used by the Commission in its decision-making process to determine whether the project is in the public convenience and necessity.

If you are a landowner receiving this notice, you may be contacted by a pipeline company representative about the acquisition of an easement to construct, operate, and maintain the proposed facilities. The pipeline company would seek to negotiate a mutually acceptable agreement. However, if the project is approved by the Commission, that approval conveys with it the right of eminent domain. Therefore, if easement negotiations fail to produce an agreement, the pipeline company could initiate condemnation proceedings in accordance with state law.

A fact sheet prepared by the FERC entitled "An Interstate Natural Gas

¹ Texas Eastern's application was filed with the Commission under Section 7 of the Natural Gas Act and Part 157 of the Commission's regulations.

Facility On My Land? What Do I Need To Know?" was attached to the project notice Texas Eastern provided to landowners. This fact sheet addresses a number of typically asked questions, including the use of eminent domain and how to participate in the Commission's proceedings. It is available for viewing on the FERC Internet website (<http://www.ferc.gov>).

Summary of the Proposed Project

Texas Eastern wants to expand the capacity of its facilities in Mississippi, Alabama, and Tennessee to transport an additional 197,147 dekatherm units per day of natural gas to two distribution companies and one electric generation plant. Texas Eastern seeks authority to construct and operate facilities in three Phases, as described below:

Phase I Facilities (November 1, 2003)

1. Construct part of the Union Church Discharge Loop, about 8.0 miles of 36-inch diameter pipeline and appurtenant facilities in Hinds and Copiah Counties, Mississippi.

2. Modify the Egypt Compressor Station in Monroe County, Mississippi by installing a mechanical variable-speed drive (VSD) in place of the existing conventional gearbox on each of the two existing 15,000 hp electric motor-driven compressor units. The uprate would result in a 20,000 hp rating for each compressor unit.

3. Modify the Barton Compressor Station in Colbert County, Alabama by installing a mechanical VSD in place of the existing conventional gearbox on the existing 15,000 hp electric motor driven compressor unit. The uprate would result in a 20,000 hp rating for the compressor unit.

4. Modify the Gladeville Compressor Station in Wilson County, Tennessee by uprating the existing 15,000 hp motor to 20,000 hp. Various appurtenant facilities would be replaced for more efficient and quieter options.

5. Provide service to City of Cartersville and winter service to Carolina Power & Light Company.

Phase II Facilities (April 1, 2004)

6. Construct remaining Union Church Discharge Loop, about 6.7 miles of 36-inch diameter pipeline and appurtenant facilities in Copiah County, Mississippi.

7. Construct the St. Francisville Discharge Loop, which consists of 4.5 miles of 36-inch diameter pipeline and appurtenant facilities in Amite and Franklin Counties, Mississippi.

8. Uprate six existing 2,500 hp electric motor driven compressor units to 3,000 hp at the Barton Compressor Station. Various appurtenant facilities would be
