Transwestern states that on August 15, 2000, it submitted pro forma tariff sheets in compliance with the Commission's Order Nos. 637, 637-A, and 637-B issued in Docket Nos. RM98-10 and RM98-12 (Commission Orders). Transwestern states that it has recently held discussions with its customers on how to resolve the remaining issues in this proceeding. The enclosed tariff sheets represent Transwestern's proposal to address issues raised in protests in this proceeding and to incorporate suggestions made by customers. Transwestern states that in several instances, these tariff proposals exceed the requirements set forth in the Commission Orders, but represent matters of importance to Transwestern and its customers that are intertwined with the resolution of issues in this proceeding.

Transwestern states that its discussions with its customers regarding the August 15, 2000 compliance filing in this docket addressed the expressed concerns of those customers filing protests to specific aspects of Transwestern's filing. In addition, Transwestern states that certain provisions contained in the August 15, 2002 filing have been overtaken by subsequent events and are no longer required to comply with Order No. 637, et seq. (e.g., netting and trading provisions which were filed by Transwestern and accepted by the Commission in compliance with Order No. 587-L).

In the instant filing, Transwestern is withdrawing all of the pro forma tariff sheets filed on August 15, 2000 and is filing new pro forma tariff sheets which address the issues raised by those parties protesting Transwestern's August 15 filing and update Transwestern's filing to recognize the subsequent events which have occurred.

Any person desiring to protest said filing should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Section 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such protests must be filed on or before July 2, 2002. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection. This filing may also be viewed on the web at <http://www.ferc.gov>
