Ameren Services Company, FirstEnergy Corp., Northern Indiana Public Service Company, National Grid Usa, Midwest Independent System Operator, Inc.; Notice of Filing

June 25, 2002.

Take notice that on June 20, 2002, Ameren Services Company (Ameren), acting as agent for its electric utility affiliates Union Electric Company d/b/a AmerenUE and Central Illinois Public Service Company d/b/a/ AmerenCIPS, FirstEnergy Corp. (FirstEnergy), on behalf of its subsidiary American Transmission Systems, Inc., Northern Indiana Public Service Company (NIPSCO), and the Midwest Independent System Operator, Inc. (MISO) tendered for filing a compliance filing in the above-referenced dockets. National Grid USA (National Grid) joined the filing to support it in full.

The compliance filing contains a letter of intent and a term sheet between Ameren, FirstEnergy, NIPSCO, and National Grid setting forth the terms to govern the negotiation of agreements providing for the formation of an independent transmission company (ITC), to be called GridAmerica LLC, under the provisions of Appendix I MISO's Open Access Transmission Tariff. GridAmerica will be formed as an LLC with National Grid as the managing member. Ameren, FirstEnergy, and NIPSCO will turn over functional control of their transmission facilities to GridAmerica pursuant to Operation Agreements.

The compliance filing also contains a letter of intent and a term sheet between Ameren, FirstEnergy, NIPSCO, National Grid, and MISO setting forth the terms to govern negotiation of the Appendix I service agreement pursuant to which GridAmerica LLC will join the MISO. The Appendix I service agreement will delineate those functions to be performed by GridAmerica and those to be performed by MISO. This filing was made to comply in full with the terms of the Commission's April 25, 2002 order in this proceeding and with Order No. 2000.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing should file with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. All such motions or protests should be filed on or before the comment date, and, to the extent applicable, must be served on the applicant and on any other person designated on the official service list. This filing is available for review at the Commission or may be viewed on the Commission's web site at <http://www.ferc.gov> using the "RIMS" link, select "Docket #" and follow the instructions (call 202-208-2222 for assistance). Protests and interventions may be filed electronically via the Internet in lieu of paper; see 18 CFR 385.2001(a)(1)(iii) and the instructions on the Commission's web site under the "e-Filing" link.

Auburndale Peaker Energy Center, L.L.C.; Notice of Issuance of Order

June 25, 2002.

Auburndale Peaker Energy Center, L.L.C. (Auburndale) filed an application requesting authority to engage in the sale of wholesale energy, capacity replacement reserves and ancillary services at market-based rates. Auburndale also requested waiver of various Commission regulations. In particular, Auburndale requested that the Commission grant blanket approval under 18 CFR part 34 of all future issuances of securities and assumptions of liability by Auburndale.

On June 19, 2002, pursuant to delegated authority, the Director, Office of Markets, Tariffs and Rates-Central, granted requests for blanket approval under part 34, subject to the following:

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest the blanket approval of issuances of securities or assumptions of liability by Auburndale should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214).

Absent a request to be heard in opposition within this period, Auburndale is authorized to issue securities and assume obligations or liabilities as a guarantor, indorser, surety, or otherwise in respect of any security of another person; provided that such issuance or assumption is for some lawful object within the corporate purposes of Auburndale, compatible with the public interest, and is reasonably necessary or appropriate for such purposes.

The Commission reserves the right to require a further showing that neither public nor private interests will be adversely affected by continued approval of Auburndale's issuances of securities or assumptions of liability.

Notice is hereby given that the deadline for filing motions to intervene or protests, as set forth above, is July 19, 2002.

Copies of the full text of the Order are available from the Commission's Public Reference Branch, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426. The Order may also be viewed on the Internet at <http://www.ferc.fed.us/online/rims.htm> (call 202-208-2222 for assistance). Comments, protests, and interventions may be filed electronically via the internet in lieu of paper. See, 18 CFR 385.2001(a)(1)(iii) and the instructions on the Commission's web site at <http://www.ferc.fed.us/efi/doorbell.htm>.

[Docket No. TX96-2-004]

City of College Station, TX; Notice of Filing

June 25, 2002.

Take notice that on June 14, 2002, the Texas Municipal Power Agency (TMPA) tendered for filing with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (Commission), its compliance filing required by the Commission's February 16, 1999, Final Order Establishing Rates, Terms and Conditions of Transmission Services in City of College Station, Texas, 86 with the FERC ¶ 61,165 (1999)

TPMA states that it will provide transmission service to the City of College Station (College Station) under the terms and conditions of TPMA's currently effective Public Utility Commission of Texas (Texas Commission) tariff for wholesale transmission services.

TPMA also states that, since January 1, 2000, it has been providing transmission service to College Station for the postage stamp rates contained in its currently effective Texas Commission tariff. TPMA states that it will continue to charge College Station those rates, subject to an adjustment for regulatory expenses associated with the proceeding in Docket No. TX96-2-000. TPMA attaches a pro forma tariff sheet, which provides College Station the option of reimbursing TPMA for those regulatory expenses through either a lump sum payment payable 30 days after the tariff sheet's effectiveness, or through thirty-six (36) equal monthly payments to be made over the three-year period following the effectiveness of the tariff sheet.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing should file with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. All such motions or protests should be filed on or before the comment date, and, to the extent applicable, must be served on the applicant and on any other person designated on the official service list. [Docket No. TX96-2-006]

City of College Station, TX; Notice of Filing

June 25, 2002.

Take notice that on June 20, 2002, the Texas Municipal Power Agency (TPMA) and the City of Bryan Texas (Bryan) tendered for filing a Joint Application to Recover Regulatory Expenses from the City of College Station, Texas (College Station).

TPMA and Bryan (hereinafter the Applicants) state that they incurred regulatory expenses as a direct result of College Station's application dated December 15, 1995, for an order under Section 211 of the Federal Power Act (FPA) directing transmission services. The Applicants state that they are submitting this filing pursuant to Section 205 of the FPA and in accordance with the Commission's Final Order Establishing Rates, Terms and Conditions for Transmission Services, issued February 16, 1999, in City of College Station, Texas, 86 FERC ¶ 61,165 (1999). The Applicants state that the Final Order makes clear that TPMA and Bryan can seek to recover from College Station reasonable regulatory expenses, including interest, associated with this proceeding.

TPMA and Bryan each attach a tariff sheet, which provides College Station the option of reimbursing the Applicants for the regulatory expenses through either a lump sum payment payable 30 days after the tariff sheets' effectiveness, or through thirty-six (36) equal monthly payments to be made over the three-year period following the effectiveness of the tariff sheets.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing should file with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. All such motions or protests should be filed on or before the comment date, and, to the extent applicable, must be served on the applicant and on any other person designated on the official service list. This filing is available for review at the Commission or may be viewed on the Commission's web site at <http://www.ferc.gov> using the "RIMS" link, select "Docket #" and follow the instructions (call 202-208-2222 for assistance).
