INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Investigation No. 731-TA-744 (Review)]

Brake Rotors from China

Determination

On the basis of the record<sup>1</sup> developed in the subject five-year review, the United States International Trade Commission determines, pursuant to section 751(c) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1675(c)), that revocation of the antidumping duty order on brake rotors from China would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury to an industry in the United States within a reasonably foreseeable time.

Background

The Commission instituted this review on March 1, 2002 (67 FR 9462) and determined on June 4, 2002 that it would conduct an expedited review (67 FR 40964, June 14, 2002).

The Commission transmitted its determination in this review to the Secretary of Commerce on July 29, 2002. The views of the Commission are contained in USITC Publication 3528 (July 2002), entitled Brake Rotors From China: Investigation No. 731-TA-744 (Review).

By order of the Commission.

Issued: July 30, 2002.

Marilyn R. Abbott,

Secretary to the Commission.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On September 15, 1997, the Department of Commerce issued an antidumping duty order on imports of crawfish tail meat from China (62 FR 48218). The Commission is conducting a review to determine whether revocation of the order would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury to the domestic industry within a reasonably foreseeable time. It will assess the adequacy of interested party responses to this notice of institution to determine whether to conduct a full review or an expedited review. The Commission's determination in any expedited review will be based on the facts available, which may include information provided in response to this notice.

Definitions.—The following definitions apply to this review:

(1) Subject Merchandise is the class or kind of merchandise that is within the scope of the five-year review, as defined by the Department of Commerce.

(2) The Subject Country in this review is China.

(3) The Domestic Like Product is the domestically produced product or products which are like, or in the absence of like, most similar in characteristics and uses with, the Subject Merchandise. In its original determination, the Commission defined the Domestic Like Product as crawfish tail meat, whether peeled or "shell-on."

(4) The Domestic Industry is the U.S. producers as a whole of the Domestic Like Product, or those producers whose collective output of the Domestic Like Product constitutes a major proportion of the total domestic production of the product. In its original determination, the Commission defined the Domestic Industry as tail meat processors.

(5) The Order Date is the date that the antidumping duty order under review became effective. In this review, the Order Date is September 15, 1997.

(6) An Importer is any person or firm engaged, either directly or through a parent company or subsidiary, in importing the Subject Merchandise into the United States from a foreign manufacturer or through its selling agent.

Participation in the Review and Public Service List
