This authority has been delegated to the Maritime Administration per 49 CFR § 1.66, Delegations to the Maritime Administrator, as amended. By this notice, MARAD is publishing information on a vessel for which a request for a U.S.-build waiver has been received, and for which MARAD requests comments from interested parties. Comments should refer to the docket number of this notice and the vessel name in order for MARAD to properly consider the comments. Comments should also state the commenter's interest in the waiver application, and address the waiver criteria given in § 388.4 of MARAD'S regulations at 46 CFR Part 388.

Vessel Proposed for Waiver of the U.S.-Build Requirement:

(3) Intended use for vessel, including geographic region of intended operation and trade. According to the applicant: "The vessel will be used in the coastwise trade, specifically carrying passengers with a crew, for a fee. The vessel will have two bases of operation. One base will be from Woods Hole, Massachusetts and the vessel will cruise the waters from Eastport, Maine to Atlantic City, New Jersey. The second base of operation will be Fort Lauderdale, Florida and the cruising waters will cover the waters from Hilton Head, South Carolina to the Florida Keys."

(5) A statement on the impact this waiver will have on other commercial passenger vessel operators. (6) A statement on the impact this waiver will have on U.S. shipyards. According to the applicant: "There is no adverse effect on US vessel builders. Based on the size of the boat and the passenger capacity of less than 6 passengers, the vessel will not economically impact US vessel builders. The National Marine Manufacturers Association has data illustrating that there are 16 million vessels in the United States. The subject vessel's economic impact on United States vessel builders will be negligible."

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Title: Suspicious Activity Report by the Securities and Futures Industry (SAR-SF).

OMB Number: 1506-0019.

Form Number: TD F 90-22.XX.

Abstract: The statute generally referred to as the “Bank Secrecy Act,” Titles I and II of Public Law 91-508, as amended, codified at 12 U.S.C. 1829b, 12 U.S.C. 1951-1959, and 31 U.S.C. 5311-5332, authorizes the Secretary of the Treasury, inter alia, to require financial institutions to keep records and file reports that are determined to have a high degree of usefulness in criminal, tax, and regulatory matters, or in the conduct of intelligence or counter-intelligence activities, to protect against international terrorism, and to implement counter-money laundering programs and compliance procedures.¹ Regulations implementing Title II of the Bank Secrecy Act appear at 31 CFR Part 103. The authority of the Secretary to administer the Bank Secrecy Act has been delegated to the Director of FinCEN.

The Secretary of the Treasury was granted authority in 1992, with the enactment of 31 U.S.C. 5318(g), to require financial institutions to report suspicious transactions. On July 1, 2002, FinCEN issued a final rule requiring brokers or dealers in securities (“broker-dealers”) to report suspicious transactions (“Broker-Dealer SAR Rule”). (67 FR 44048). The final rule can also be found at 31 CFR 103.19.

In the preamble to the final Broker-Dealer SAR Rule, FinCEN indicated that it would be developing a suspicious activity reporting form for broker-dealers entitled “Suspicious Activity Report—Brokers or Dealers in Securities,” or “SAR-BD.”² The form may also be used by futures commission merchants (“FCMs”) registered with the Commodities Futures Trading
