

on evaluating results, quality, and customer satisfaction. The one-page survey asks for voluntary input from respondents by circling responses that indicate an assessment of reader satisfaction regarding the value and quality of Commission reports. The "tear-out" survey is being placed inside the cover of certain reports (and is included with the PDF format placed on the USITC Internet site) issued by the Commission (excluding Title VII reports for which a separate survey is being designed), including all public studies requested by the Congress and the United States Trade Representative, or reports conducted by the USITC on its own motion, pursuant to section 332 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1332(g)), and other public reports that meet agency program requirements for a research program set forth in its Strategic Plan (available on the agency's World Wide Web site at <http://www.usitc.gov>). Following are highlights of the proposed information collection:

- (1) Number of forms to be submitted: One single-page form.
- (2) Title of form: USITC Reader Satisfaction Survey.
- (3) Type of request: Proposed renewal of a currently approved collection.
- (4) Frequency of use: Annual or on occasion information gathering.
- (5) Description of Respondents: Interested parties receiving most public reports issued by the USITC, with the exception of Title VII reports.
- (6) Estimated number of respondents: 600 annually.
- (7) Estimated total number of hours to complete the forms: 100 hours annually.
- (8) Recordkeeping burden: There is no retention period for recordkeeping required.
- (9) Response burden: Less than 10 minutes for each individual respondent.
- (10) Summary of the collection of information: Single-page survey requests readers' comments about value and quality of USITC reports.
- (11) Information requested on a voluntary basis is not proprietary in nature, but rather for program evaluation purposes and is not intended to be published. Commission treatment of questionnaire responses will be followed; responses will be aggregated and will not be presented in a manner that will reveal the individual parties that supplied the information.

Although the USITC Reader Satisfaction Survey will be made available on the Commission's Web site, comments on the survey must be in paper form.

By order of the Commission.

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Investigation No. 731-TA-747 (Review)]

Fresh Tomatoes From Mexico

AGENCY: International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Termination of review.

SUMMARY: On July 30, 2002, the Department of Commerce terminated its review of the suspended investigation on fresh tomatoes from Mexico (67 FR 50858, August 6, 2002). The basis for the termination is the withdrawal from the suspension agreement by Mexican tomato growers which account for a significant percentage of all fresh tomatoes imported into the United States from Mexico. Because the suspension agreement no longer covers substantially all imports of fresh tomatoes from Mexico, the Department of Commerce terminated the suspension agreement, terminated the review, and resumed the antidumping investigation.

Accordingly, the U.S. International Trade Commission gives notice of the termination of its review involving imports from Mexico of fresh tomatoes, provided for in subheadings 0702.00 and 9906.07.01 through 9906.07.09 of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States.

EFFECTIVE DATE: July 30, 2002.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Elizabeth Haines (202-205-3200), Office of Investigations, U.S. International Trade Commission, 500 E Street SW., Washington, DC 20436. Hearing-impaired individuals are advised that information on this matter can be obtained by contacting the Commission's TDD terminal on 202-205-1810. Persons with mobility impairments who will need special assistance in gaining access to the Commission should contact the Office of the Secretary at 202-205-2000. General information concerning the Commission may also be obtained by accessing its Internet server (<http://www.usitc.gov>). The public record for this review may be viewed on the Commission's electronic docket (EDIS-ON-LINE) at <http://dockets.usitc.gov/eol/public>.

Authority: This review is being terminated under authority of title VII of the Tariff Act of 1930; this notice is published pursuant to section 207.40 of the Commission's rules (19 CFR 207.40).

Issued: August 12, 2002.

By order of the Commission.

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Investigation No. 731-TA-1012 (Preliminary)]

Certain Frozen Fish Fillets From Vietnam

Determination

On the basis of the record¹ developed in the subject investigation, the United States International Trade Commission determines, pursuant to section 733(a) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1673b(a)) (the Act), that there is a reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is threatened with material injury by reason of imports from Vietnam of certain frozen fish fillets, provided for in subheading 0304.20.60 of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States, that are alleged to be sold in the United States at less than fair value (LTFV).

Commencement of Final Phase Investigation

Pursuant to section 207.18 of the Commission's rules, the Commission also gives notice of the commencement of the final phase of its investigation. The Commission will issue a final phase notice of scheduling, which will be published in the Federal Register as provided in section 207.21 of the Commission's rules, upon notice from the Department of Commerce of an affirmative preliminary determination in the investigation under section 733(b) of the Act, or, if the preliminary determination is negative, upon notice of an affirmative final determination in that investigation under section 735(a) of the Act. Parties that filed entries of appearance in the preliminary phase of the investigation need not enter a separate appearance for the final phase of the investigation. Industrial users, and, if the merchandise under investigation is sold at the retail level, representative consumer organizations have the right to appear as parties in Commission antidumping and countervailing duty investigations. The Secretary will prepare a public service list containing the names and addresses of all persons, or their representatives, who are parties to the investigation.

Background

On June 28, 2002, a petition was filed with the Commission and Commerce by the Catfish Farmers of America and by individual U.S. catfish processors alleging that an industry in the United States is materially injured and threatened with material injury by reason of LTFV imports certain frozen fish fillets from Vietnam. Accordingly, effective June 28, 2002, the Commission instituted antidumping duty investigation No. 731-TA-1012 (Preliminary).

Notice of the institution of the Commission's investigation and of a public conference to be held in connection therewith was given by posting copies of the notice in the Office of the Secretary, U.S. International Trade Commission, Washington, DC, and by publishing the notice in the Federal Register of July 8, 2002 (67 FR 45147). The conference was held in Washington, DC, on July 19, 2002, and all persons who requested the opportunity were permitted to appear in person or by counsel.

The Commission transmitted its determination in this investigation to the Secretary of Commerce on August 12, 2002. The views of the Commission are contained in USITC Publication 3533 (August 2002), entitled Certain Frozen Fish Fillets from Vietnam: Investigation No. 731-TA-1012 (Preliminary).

Issued: August 12, 2002

By order of the Commission.
