In the latter circumstance, applicants must also submit an exhibit describing each of the omitted documents, stating both the specific reason(s) for the omission and the basis for the determination that the omitted documentation is not material to the Commission's consideration of the subject application. Examples of documents that normally would not be material to the Commission's processing of the application are employee benefit plans and lists of vendor supply contracts being assumed by the buyer.

We remind applicants that the failure to submit documentation containing all material terms of an agreement for the assignment or transfer of control of a broadcast authorization, including the sales price, will delay processing of the application and may result in the Bureau providing the public with an additional thirty-day public comment period following the submission of all such documentation.
