Gulf South is revising the tariff sheets listed above in order simplify Gulf South's pro forma service agreements and to eliminate any possibility of confusion between the service agreement terms and conditions and other tariff provisions. The language from the standard terms and conditions of such agreements has either been eliminated or moved to another part of the tariff as more fully described below. Gulf South is also updating its tariff to eliminate its proprietary Operational Balancing Agreement form and proposes to utilize the NAESB Model Operational Balancing Agreement as the form document for its OBA agreements.

Gulf South states that copies of this filing have been served upon Gulf South's customers, state commissions and other interested parties.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE, Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. Federal Energy Regulatory Commission

[Docket No. ER02-2366-000]

Louis Dreyfus Energy LLC; Notice of Issuance of Order

October 4, 2002.

Louis Dreyfus Energy LLC (LDE) submitted for filing an application for authority to engage in the sales of electric power, energy transactions and ancillary services at wholesale at market-based rates. LDE also requested waiver of various Commission regulations. In particular, LDE requested that the Commission grant blanket approval under 18 CFR Part 34 of all future issuances of securities and assumptions of liability by LDE.

On September 18, 2002, pursuant to delegated authority, the Director, Office of Markets, Tariffs and Rates-East, granted requests for blanket approval under Part 34, subject to the following:

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest the blanket approval of issuances of securities or assumptions of liability by LDE should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214).

Absent a request to be heard in opposition within this period, LDE is authorized to issue securities and assume obligations or liabilities as a guarantor, indorser, surety, or otherwise in respect of any security of another person; provided that such issuance or assumption is for some lawful object within the corporate purposes of LDE, compatible with the public interest, and is reasonably necessary or appropriate for such purposes.

The Commission reserves the right to require a further showing that neither public nor private interests will be adversely affected by continued approval of LDE's issuances of securities or assumptions of liability.

Notice is hereby given that the deadline for filing motions to intervene or protests, as set forth above, is October 18, 2002.

Copies of the full text of the Order are available from the Commission's Public Reference Branch, 888 First Street, NE, Washington, DC 20426. The Order may also be viewed on the Internet at <http://www.ferc.fed.us/online/rims.htm> (call 202-208-2222 for assistance). Comments, protests, and interventions may be filed electronically via the
