The proposed rule change also amends paragraph (c) to add listing standards for options on a broad-based security index. The CBOE states that these listing standards follow, for the most part, the listing standards for options on narrow-based security indexes. However, the criteria specifically discussed above, regarding the composition of a narrow-based security index, was reversed for the composition of a broad-based security index. For example, for a broad-based security index the index must have 10 or more component securities.

The proposed rule change amends the maintenance standards by moving them to new paragraph (d) and making them applicable to both the narrow-based security indexes and the broad-based security indexes. The CBOE states that the maintenance standards listed in the proposed rule change also follows the Division's Bulletin for the most part. CBOE believes that the proposed rule change would assist CBOE in providing new products to the marketplace in an efficient and expeditious manner. The CBOE states that this in turn would benefit investors by providing them with new products, in a more timely fashion and provide more competition.

2. Statutory Basis

CBOE believes the proposed rule change, as amended, is consistent with Section 6(b) of the Act<sup>11</sup> in general and furthers the objectives of Section 6(b)(5)<sup>12</sup> in particular in that it should promote just and equitable principles of trade, remove impediments to and perfect the mechanism of a free and open market and a national market system, and protect investors and the public interest. CBOE believes that the adoption of the proposed rule change will enable CBOE to act expeditiously in listing new options on narrow-based and broad-based security indexes. In addition, CBOE believes that the proposed rule change would remove impediments to a free and open market place by providing competition for new products. CBOE states that the proposed rule change would permit CBOE to more effectively bring new products to the marketplace for competition, as well as permit CBOE to compete with other new products in the marketplace, such as security futures.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

CBOE states that this proposed rule change, as amended, does not impose any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants or Others

No written comments were solicited or received with respect to the proposed rule change.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

Within 35 days of the date of publication of this notice in the Federal Register or within such longer period (i) as the Commission may designate up to 90 days of such date if it finds such longer period to be appropriate and publishes its reasons for so finding or (ii) as to which the CBOE consents, the Commission will:

(A) By order approve such proposed rule change, or

(B) institute proceedings to determine whether the proposed rule change should be disapproved.

IV. Solicitation of Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views and arguments concerning the foregoing, including whether the proposed rule change, as amended, is consistent with the Act. The Commission solicits comment on whether the existing position limits are adequate to address manipulation concerns for both cash settled and physically settled index options, particularly narrow-based index options. Persons making written submissions should file six copies thereof with the Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 450 Fifth Street, NW., Washington, DC 20549-

0609. Copies of the submission, all subsequent amendments, all written statements with respect to the proposed rule change that are filed with the Commission, and all written communications relating to the proposed rule change between the Commission and any person, other than those that may be withheld from the public in accordance with the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 552, will be available for inspection and copying in the Commission's Public Reference Room. Copies of such filing will also be available for inspection and copying at the principal office of CBOE. All submissions should refer to File No. SR-CBOE-2002-24 and should be submitted by November 6, 2002.

For the Commission, by the Division of Market Regulation, pursuant to delegated authority.<sup>13</sup>

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

1. Background

Under section 2104 of the Bipartisan Trade Promotion Authority Act of 2002 (TPA Act) (19 U.S.C. 3804), for agreements that will be approved and implemented through TPA procedures, the President must provide the Congress with at least 90 days written notice of his intent to enter into negotiations and must identify the specific objectives for the negotiations. Before and after the submission of this notice, the President must consult with appropriate Congressional committees and the Congressional Oversight Group regarding the negotiations. Under the Trade Act of 1974, as amended, the President must (i) afford interested persons an opportunity to present their views regarding any matter relevant to any proposed agreement, (ii) designate an agency or inter-agency committee to hold a public hearing regarding any proposed agreement, and (iii) seek the advice of the U.S. International Trade Commission (ITC) regarding the probable economic effects on U.S. industries and consumers of the removal of tariffs and non-tariff barriers on imports pursuant to any proposed agreement.

On October 1, 2002, after consulting with relevant Congressional committees and the Congressional Oversight Group, the USTR notified the Congress that the President intends to initiate free trade agreement negotiations with the five member countries of the Central American Economic Integration System (Costa Rica, El Salvador, Honduras, Guatemala, and Nicaragua) (hereinafter Central America) and identified specific objectives for the negotiations. In addition, the USTR has requested the ITC's probable economic effects advice. The ITC intends to provide this advice on December 27, 2002. This notice solicits views from the public on these negotiations and provides information on a hearing which will be conducted pursuant to the requirements of the Trade Act of 1974.

2. Public Comments and Testimony

To assist the Administration as it continues to develop its negotiating objectives for the proposed agreement, the Chairman of the TPSC invites written comments and/or oral testimony of interested persons at a public hearing. Comments and testimony may address the reduction or elimination of tariffs or non-tariff barriers on any articles provided for in the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States (HTSUS)
