New York Independent System Operator, Inc.; Notice of Filing

December 16, 2002.

Take notice that on December 2, 2002, the New York Independent System Operator, Inc. (NYISO) tendered for filing with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (Commission) a compliance filing in accordance with the Commission's October 31, 2002, order in the above-captioned proceeding.

The NYISO states that it has served a copy of this filing upon all parties designated on the official service lists compiled by the Secretary in these proceedings.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing should file with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. All such motions or protests should be filed on or before the comment date, and, to the extent applicable, must be served on the applicant and on any other person designated on the official service list. This filing is available for review at the Commission or may be viewed on the Commission's Web site at <http://www.ferc.gov>, using the "FERRIS" link. Enter the docket number excluding the last three digits in the docket number field to access the document. Federal Energy Regulatory Commission

[Docket No. EL03-30-000]

Tenaska Power Services Co., Complainant, v. Midwest Independent Transmission System Operator, Inc., Respondent; Notice of Complaint

December 16, 2002.

Take notice that on December 10, 2002, Tenaska Power Services Co. (Tenaska Power) tendered for filing with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (Commission) a complaint against Midwest Independent Transmission System Operator, Inc. (MISO) alleging MISO has violated its Tariff and Commission precedent and policy by failing to grant Tenaska Power's Long-Term firm transmission service requests, instead affording priority to Short-Term transmission service requests.

Tenaska Power states that it served a copy of the Complaint on MISO on December 9, 2002.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest this filing should file with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. The answer to the complaint and all comments, interventions or protests must be filed on or before January 6, 2003. This filing is available for review at the Commission in the Public Reference Room or may be viewed on the Commission's Web site at <http://www.ferc.gov> using the "FERRIS" link. Enter the docket number excluding the last three digits in the docket number field to access the document.
