Fresh Garlic From the People’s Republic of China: Notice of Extension of Time Limit for the Preliminary Results of a New Shipper Antidumping Duty Review

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

ACTION: Notice of Extension of Time Limit for the Preliminary Results of a New Shipper Antidumping Duty Review.

SUMMARY: The Department of Commerce is extending the time limit for the preliminary results of a new shipper review of the antidumping duty order on fresh garlic from the People’s Republic of China until no later than April 22, 2003.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

The Department of Commerce (the Department) determined that the expiration of the preliminary results of this review was April 22, 2003.

On February 25, 2003, we received a request for an extension of the time limit for the preliminary results of the new shipper review in which Hongda requested we extend the time limit to no later than April 22, 2003.

The Department received no comments or oppositions to this request.

We find that the new shipper review is extraordinarily complicated and is not practicable to complete the review within the time limits mandated by section 751(a)(2)(B)(iv) of the Act. In accordance with section 751(a)(2)(B)(iv) of the Act and 19 CFR 214.3(l), we are extending the time limit for the preliminary results of this review to no later than April 22, 2003.

Dated: December 20, 2002.

Louis Apple,
Acting Deputy Assistant Secretary for AD/ CVD Enforcement I.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

On November 30, 2002, the Department determined that an investigation is warranted to determine whether imports of saccharin from the People’s Republic of China are being sold at less than fair value (LTFV). See Notice of Investigation: Preliminary Anti-Dumping and Countervailing Duty Procedures for Certain Products of the People’s Republic of China, 67 FR 71885 (November 30, 2002).

The Department has preliminarily determined that imports of saccharin from the People’s Republic of China are being sold at LTFV. See Preliminary Determination of Sales at Less Than Fair Value: Saccharin From the People’s Republic of China, 67 FR 71897 (November 30, 2002).

A detailed discussion of the issues addressed in the preliminary determination appears in the full version of the Department’s administrative determination. The Department has also published a detailed discussion of the supplemental information it examined in the full version of the administrative determination.
