

the extent to which the applicant may need to exercise eminent domain to obtain rights-of-way for the proposed project and balances that against the non-environmental benefits to be provided by the project. Therefore, if a person has comments on community and landowner impacts from this proposal, it is important either to file comments or to intervene as early in the process as possible.

Motions to intervene, protests and comments may be filed electronically via the internet in lieu of paper; see 18 CFR 385.2001(a)(1)(iii) and the instructions on the Commission's Web site under the "e-Filing" link. The Commission strongly encourages electronic filings.

If the Commission decides to set the application for a formal hearing before an Administrative Law Judge, the Commission will issue another notice describing that process. At the end of the Commission's review process, a final Commission order approving or denying a certificate will be issued. Comment Date: February 20, 2003.

Old Dominion Electric Cooperative, Complainant v. Public Service Electric and Gas Company, Respondent; Notice of Amended Complaint

January 29, 2003.

Take notice that on January 24, 2003, pursuant to Rules 206, 212 and 716 of the Federal Power Act, Old Dominion Electric Cooperative (Old Dominion) filed with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (Commission) an amended complaint against Public Service Electric and Gas Company (PSE&G) requesting that the Commission: consider Old Dominion's previously-filed complaint action against PSE&G, as amended; on its merits; find that the rate pancaking to Old Dominion under a bundled power sales contract between Old Dominion and PSE&G is unjust, unreasonable, and unduly discriminatory; order and direct that the transmission component in the bundled rate of PSE&G under the contract be eliminated; and on a fast-track basis, direct that PSE&G defer any claim or demand for payment of past due amounts prior to final Commission determination of the matters and proceedings discussed in Old Dominion's motion or grant a stay pending final Commission determination on such matters.

Old Dominion states that copies of the filing were served upon PSE&G, PJM, Delmarva Power & Light Company, and
