SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

Issuer Delisting; Notice of Application To Withdraw From Listing and Registration on the New York Stock Exchange, Inc. (Cabot Industrial Properties, L.P., 7.125% Redeemable Notes (due 2003)) File No. 1-14979

February 19, 2003.

Cabot Industrial Properties, L.P., a limited partnership under the laws of the State of Delaware ("Issuer"), has filed an application with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission"), pursuant to Section 12(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Act")¹ and Rule 12d2-2(d) thereunder,² to withdraw its 7.125% Redeemable Notes (due 2004) ("Security"), from listing and registration on the New York Stock Exchange, Inc. ("NYSE" or "Exchange").

Cabot Industrial Trust, the sole General Partner of the Issuer ("Sole Partner") approved resolutions on February 12, 2003 to withdraw the Issuer's Security from listing on the NYSE. In making its decision to withdraw the Issuer's Security from the Exchange, the Sole Partner states that pursuant to an Offer to Purchase and Consent Solicitation Statement dated January 15, 2003, the Issuer has offered to repurchase all of the outstanding Security and has solicited the consent of the holders of the Security to certain amendments to the indenture under which the Security was issued. As of January 29, 2003, the Issuer had received consents sufficient to amend the indenture and had received valid tenders for 98.13% of the aggregate outstanding principal amount of the Security. The Issuer states that once the offer is successfully consummated, the Issuer expects there to be few or no remaining holders of the Security.

The Issuer stated in its application that it has met the requirements of the NYSE rules governing an issuer's voluntary withdrawal of a security from listing and registration. The Issuer's application relates solely to the Security's withdrawal from listing on the NYSE and from registration under Section 12(b) of the Act³ and shall not affect its obligation to be registered under Section 12(g) of the Act.⁴

Any interested person may, on or before March 14, 2003, submit by letter to the Secretary of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 450 Fifth Street, NW., Washington, DC 20549-0609, facts bearing upon whether the application has been made in accordance with the rules of the NYSE and what terms, if any, should be imposed by the Commission for the protection of investors. The Commission, based on the information submitted to it, will issue an order granting the application after the date mentioned above, unless the Commission determines to order a hearing on the matter.

For the Commission, by the Division of Market Regulation, pursuant to delegated authority.⁵

Issuer Delisting; Notice of Application To Withdraw From Listing and Registration on The Boston Stock Exchange, Inc. (Chiquita Brands International, Inc., Common Stock, $.01 par value, (the "Old Common Stock" in existence through March 19, 2002)) File No. 1-10550

February 19, 2003.

Chiquita Brands International, Inc., a New Jersey corporation ("Issuer"), has filed an application with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission"), pursuant to Section 12(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Act")¹ and Rule 12d2-2(d) thereunder,² to withdraw its $.01 par value, (the "Old Common Stock" in existence through March 19, 2002) ("Security"), from listing and registration on the Boston Stock Exchange, Inc. ("BSE" or "Exchange").

On February 13, 2002, the Board of Directors ("Board") of the Issuer approved resolutions to withdraw the Security from listing on the Exchange. The Board states that the following reasons factored into its decision to withdraw the Security from the BSE: (i) The Security has not traded on the BSE since March 19, 2002, on which date the Issuer emerged from a reorganization under Chapter 11 of the United States bankruptcy laws, and in connection with the reorganization, canceled all of its securities outstanding prior to the effectiveness of the reorganization and issued new common stock (the "New Common Stock") and other securities to certain investors; (ii) the New Common Stock has been listed on the New York Stock Exchange, Inc. ("NYSE") since March 19, 2002; and (iii) the Issuer sought to simplify its operations, and determined to maintain listing of the New Common Stock only on the NYSE. The Issuer notes that the New Common Stock is not listed on the BSE and only trades on the Exchange on an unlisted trading privileges basis.

The Issuer stated in its application that it has met the requirements of the BSE rules governing an issuer's voluntary withdrawal of a security from listing and registration. The Issuer's application relates solely to the Security's withdrawal from listing on the BSE and from registration under Section 12(b) of the Act³ and shall not affect its obligation to be registered under Section 12(g) of the Act.⁴

[Release No. 34-47374; File No. SR-Amex-2002-102]

Self-Regulatory Organizations; Order Approving a Proposed Rule Change by the American Stock Exchange LLC to Create a New Percentage Order Type to be Called "Immediate Execution or Cancel Election"

February 19, 2003.

I. Introduction

On December 10, 2002, the American Stock Exchange LLC ("Amex" or "Exchange") filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC" or "Commission"), pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Act")¹ and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,² a proposed rule change to amend its Rule 131 to create a new percentage order type to be called Immediate Execution or Cancel Election. The proposed rule change was published for public comment in the Federal Register on January 17, 2003.³ The Commission received no comments on the proposal. This order approves the proposed rule change.

II. Description of the Proposal

Currently, Amex Rule 131 provides for three types of percentage orders: straight limit, last sale, and "buy minus/sell plus." The Exchange believes that the application of the election provisions does not meet the interests of some investors placing percentage orders, particularly last sale percentage orders. The Exchange believes that investors rely on last sale percentage orders as a way to trade along with the trend of the market without initiating price changes or otherwise influencing the equilibrium or buying and selling interest. However, executions may not always be able to be effected, as the market trend may continue to move away from the price at which the order may be executed. In addition, elected portions of the last sale percentage order may lag behind movement of the market, which defeats the investor's purpose in entering the order.

In response, the Exchange proposes to amend Amex Rule 131(k) to adopt a percentage order type called Immediate Execution or Cancel Election. Under the terms of the proposal, the elected portion of a percentage order marked Immediate Execution or Cancel Election would be required to be executed immediately, in whole or in part, at the price of the electing transaction, or better. If the elected portion cannot be executed at that price or better, the election would be deemed canceled, and the unexecuted elected portion would revert back to a percentage order, subject to subsequent election or conversion.

For example, where an Immediate Execution or Cancel Election buy percentage order for 1,000 shares at 30.50 is placed with the specialist and the next transaction consists of 500 shares at 30.25, the specialist would elect 500 shares and must immediately execute the order at the price of the electing transaction, 30.25, or better. If there is liquidity sufficient to execute only 300 shares at the price of the electing transaction, 30.25, or better, the specialist would execute 300 shares at that price, the election of the remaining 200 shares would be canceled, and the 200 shares would revert back to an unelected percentage order. If, instead, there is no further market interest to sell at 30.25, and the market moves away from the price of the electing transaction to, for instance, 30.30, the entire election would be canceled,⁴ and the unexecuted elected portion would revert back to a percentage order.

III. Discussion

The Commission finds that the proposed rule change is consistent with the requirements of Section 6 of the Act⁵ and the rules and regulations thereunder applicable to a national securities exchange.⁶ In particular, the Commission finds that the proposal is consistent with Section 6(b)(5) of the Act, which requires, among other things, that the Exchange's procedures be designed to prevent fraudulent and manipulative acts and practices, to promote just and equitable principles of trade, and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest.⁷

The Commission believes that the proposed rule change will remove impediments to and perfect the mechanism of a free and open market by providing additional flexibility to investors entering percentage orders. Specifically, the proposed Immediate Execution or Cancel Election percentage order should allow investors to achieve their investment goals while continuing to limit the specialist's discretion in representing such orders. The Commission believes that requiring the specialist to treat an election as canceled, unless the elected portion can be executed immediately at the price of the electing transaction or better, should ensure that the investor will not be trading ahead of, nor lagging behind, the market when there is insufficient interest to execute the elected portion of ⁴ The specialist would not execute the order at 30.30, even though such an execution is within the maximum limit of the percentage order (30.50). In this regard, an Immediate Execution or Cancel Election percentage order is treated similar to a last sale percentage order.
