Synopsis: The proposed agreement modification deletes the United States Australasia Agreement as a party to the agreement, changes the agreement name to the United States/Australasia Discussion Agreement, and deletes the Pacific Islands from the geographic scope. The amendment breaks Article 5.1(a) into two sub-paragraphs and revises the language of various sub-paragraphs to clarify the authority contained in the agreement. New sub-paragraphs 5.1(c) and 5.1(d) authorize agreement and multi-carrier service contracts. The parties are deleting the reference to conferences in Article 7, adding voting procedures for agreement service contracts and amendments in Article 8, and deleting Article 11 authorizing Independent Action. The amendment also makes technical corrections required by Australian law to Appendix B.
