SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[Release No. 34-47591; File No. S7-30-02]

RIN 3235-AI60

Regulation Analyst Certification

AGENCY: Securities and Exchange Commission.

ACTION: Notice of OMB approval of collections of information.

SUMMARY: The Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") adopted new Regulation Analyst Certification ("Regulation AC") (17 CFR 242.500 through 242.505) under the Securities Exchange Act (17 U.S.C. 78, et seq.) on February 20, 2003. Regulation AC requires that brokers, dealers, and certain persons associated with a broker or dealer include in research reports certifications by the research analyst that the views expressed in the report accurately reflect his or her personal views, and disclose whether or not the analyst received compensation or other payments in connection with his or her specific recommendations or views. Broker-dealers would also be required to obtain periodic certifications by research analysts in connection with the analyst's public appearances. Certain provisions of the Regulation contain "collection of information" requirements within the meaning of the Paperwork Reduction Act (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.), and the Commission submitted the proposed collections of information to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for review. OMB has approved the collection of information requirements contained in Regulation AC.

EFFECTIVE DATE: April 14, 2003.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: James Brigagliano, Thomas Eidt, or

Racquel Russell, at (202) 942-0772 in the Office of Risk Management and Control in the Division of Market Regulation, Securities and Exchange Commission, 450 5th Street, NW., Washington, DC 20549-0506.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Regulation Analyst Certification

Regulation Analyst Certification requires that broker-dealers and covered persons include in their research reports:

- A statement by the research analyst certifying that the views expressed in the research report accurately reflect such research analyst's personal views about the subject securities or issuers; and

- A statement by the research analyst certifying that no part of his or her compensation was, is, or will be directly or indirectly related to the specific recommendation or views contained in the research report; or

- A statement by the research analyst certifying that part or all of his or her compensation was, is, or will be directly or indirectly related to the specific recommendation or views contained in the research report. If the analyst did receive such related compensation, the statement must include the source and amount of such compensation, and the purpose of the compensation, and further disclose that such compensation may influence the recommendation in the research report.

Additionally, under Regulation AC, broker-dealers must make a record related to public appearances by research analysts. Specifically, a broker-dealer who publishes, circulates, or provides a research report prepared by a research analyst or a covered person employs, would be required to make a record within thirty days after each calendar quarter in which the research analyst made the public appearance, that includes:

- A written statement by the research analyst certifying that the views expressed in each public appearance accurately reflected such research analyst's personal views about the subject securities or issuers; and

- A written statement by the research analyst certifying that no part of such research analyst's compensation was, is, or will be directly or indirectly related to any specific recommendations or views expressed in any public appearance.

In cases where the broker or dealer does not obtain a statement by the research analyst in connection with public appearances as described above, the broker-dealer must promptly notify its examining authority, designated
