FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

Formations of, Acquisitions by, and Mergers of Bank Holding Companies

The companies listed in this notice have applied to the Board for approval, pursuant to the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 (12 U.S.C. 1841 et seq.) (BHC Act), Regulation Y (12 CFR Part 225), and all other applicable statutes and regulations to become a bank holding company and/or to acquire the assets or the ownership of, control of, or the power to vote shares of a bank or bank holding company and all of the banks and nonbanking companies owned by the bank holding company, including the companies listed below.

The applications listed below, as well as other related filings required by the Board, are available for immediate inspection at the Federal Reserve Bank indicated. The application also will be available for inspection at the offices of the Board of Governors. Interested persons may express their views in writing on the standards enumerated in the BHC Act (12 U.S.C. 1842(c)). If the proposal also involves the acquisition of a nonbanking company, the review also includes whether the acquisition of the nonbanking company complies with the standards in section 4 of the BHC Act (12 U.S.C. 1843). Unless otherwise noted, nonbanking activities will be conducted throughout the United States. Additional information on all bank holding companies may be obtained from the National Information Center website at www.ffiec.gov/nic/.

Unless otherwise noted, comments regarding each of these applications must be received at the Reserve Bank indicated or the offices of the Board of Governors not later than May 19, 2003.

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION

Public Workshop: Information Flows: The Costs and Benefits to Consumers and Businesses of the Collection and Use of Consumer Information

AGENCY: Federal Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice of public workshop and opportunity for comment.

SUMMARY: The Federal Trade Commission (''FTC'' or ''Commission'') announces a public workshop on ''The Costs and Benefits to Consumers and Businesses of the Collection and Use of Consumer Information.'' The workshop will focus on how and why certain businesses collect, analyze, and use certain consumer information to facilitate commercial transactions with consumers and the associated costs and benefits to consumers and businesses of such practices. The workshop will be held at and administered by the FTC.

DATES: The workshop will take place on June 18, 2003, at the FTC's Satellite Building, now located at 601 New Jersey Avenue, NW., Washington, DC. The workshop is open to the public and attendance is free of charge. Pre-registration is not required. The workshop will be transcribed and placed on the public record.

Requests to Participate as a Panelist: As discussed below, written requests to participate as a panelist in the workshop must be filed on or before May 9, 2003. Requests should be addressed to Donald S. Clark, Office of the Secretary, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20580 or via e-mail at infoflows@ftc.gov. Parties are asked to include in their requests a detailed statement setting forth their expertise in or knowledge of the issues and their contact information, including a telephone number, facsimile number, and e-mail address.

Using the following criteria, FTC staff will select a limited number of panelists to participate in the forum:

1. The party has expertise in or knowledge of the issues that are the focus of the forum.

2. The party's participation would promote a balance of interests being represented at the forum.

3. The party can present information or evidence that is highly relevant to the forum and not available from other parties.

Persons filing requests to participate as a panelist will be notified on or before May 21, 2003, if they have been selected to participate.

Written Comments: Whether or not selected to participate, any interested person may submit written comments responsive to any of the topics to be addressed; such comments should be submitted no later than the last panel of the workshop. Any written comments received also will be placed on the public record. Written comments should be submitted in both hard copy and electronic form. Six hard copies of each
