

Government-to-Government Relationship With Tribes

In accordance with the President's memorandum of April 29, 1994, "Government-to-Government Relations with Native American Tribal Governments" (59 FR 22951) and 512 DM 2, we have determined that this rule will have no effect on Federally recognized Indian tribes.

Clarity of Regulations

Executive Order 12866 requires each agency to write regulations that are easy to understand. We invite your comments on how to make this rule easier to understand, including answers to questions such as the following: (1) Are the requirements in the rule clearly stated? (2) Does the rule contain technical language or jargon that interferes with its clarity? (3) Does the format of the rule (grouping and order of sections, use of headings, paragraphing, etc.) aid or reduce its clarity? (4) Would the rule be easier to understand if it were divided into more (but shorter) sections? (5) Is the description of the rule in the SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION section of the preamble helpful in understanding the interim rule? What else could we do to make the rule easier to understand?

Send a copy of any comments about how we could make this rule easier to understand to: Office of Regulatory Affairs, Department of the Interior, Room 7229, 1849 C Street, NW., Washington, DC 20240. You also may e-mail comments to: Exsec@ios.doi.gov.

Our practice is to make comments, including names and home addresses of respondents, available for public review during regular business hours. You may call 361/994-9005 to make an appointment to view the files. Individual respondents may request that we withhold their home address from the rulemaking record, which we will honor to the extent allowable by law. Under limited circumstances, as allowable by law, we can withhold from the rulemaking record a respondent's identity. If you wish us to withhold your name and/or address, you must state this prominently at the beginning of your comment. However, we will not consider anonymous comments. We will make all submissions from organizations or businesses, and from individuals identifying themselves as representing an organization or business, available for public inspection in their entirety.

 - J. Public hearing on turtle conservation measures, and on management of marlin fisheries in Hawaii. Current turtle conservation measures for turtles which interact with the Hawaii-based longline fishery include a complete closure of all shallow set swordfish target longline fishing north of the equator and a seasonal closure in April and May each year of fishing grounds south of the Hawaiian Islands (from 15° N. lat. to the equator, and from 145° W. long. to 180° long.). The Council will consider whether to amend the Fishery Management Plan for the Pelagics Fishery of the Western Pacific Region (Pelagics FMP) and eliminate the southern April/May closure, or to modify the closure so that some areas would remain open during April and May. The Council will take public comment on modifications to the current management regime before taking further action on this issue.
- The Council staff will consider a range of alternatives to address the fact that Pacific blue marlin landings are reportedly approaching maximum sustainable yield (MSY). Under new overfishing control rules recommended by the Council in its recent Sustainable Fisheries Act amendments, the Council will be required to reduce fishing mortality if overfishing is determined to be occurring, if the stock is determined to be overfished, or if the fishery is identified to be approaching an overfished condition. The degree to which fishing mortality by Council managed fisheries should be reduced is unclear given that these fisheries are a small percentage of Pacific-wide harvests. The Council will deliberate on the appropriate scale of response, and on the appropriate measures that it could adopt as a preferred alternative in an amendment to the Pelagics FMP, should this be required. The Council will take public comment on whether an amendment to the Pelagics FMP is necessary, and if so, what should be the preferred alternative in the amendment to the Pelagics FMP.

- C. Overfishing control rule/MSY
- D. Report on NWHI bottomfish observer program
- E. New entry criteria for Mau Zone community development program bottomfish permits (Action item)
- F. Guam offshore bottomfish management (Action Item)
- G. Public hearing on final action for Mau Zone community development program bottomfish permits and Guam offshore bottomfish management.

The Council will consider alternatives to take final action on a process for issuing NWHI Mau Zone bottomfish

CDP permits. The three alternatives to be considered for selecting participants for the program include a random selection process (lottery), a weighted point system, and evaluation criteria. Each alternative will be used in concert with the Western Pacific community eligibility criteria as described in a Federal Register document published on April 16, 2002 (67 FR 18512). The Council's preferred alternative adopted by the Council at its 117th meeting in Saipan on February 12, 2003, was incorporated into the existing draft framework amendment "Measure to Establish Eligibility Criteria for New Entry into the Northwestern Hawaiian Islands Mau Zone Limited Access System". The revised framework regulatory amendment incorporates the CDP permit issuance process to be presented and considered for final action by the Council at this meeting.

The Council will also consider alternatives and intends to take final action to manage Guam's offshore bottomfish fishery. The Council considered management alternatives at its 117th Council meeting in February 2003, and selected, as its preferred alternative, the option to prohibit targeting of bottomfish management unit species (BMUS) using vessels longer than 50 ft (15.24 m) that fish in Federal waters within 50 nautical miles from shore. In addition the preferred alternative would require Federal permits and reports for all vessels over 50 ft (15.24 m) in length that land BMUS in Guam.

Recent entry of larger vessels into the Guam bottomfish fishery has raised concerns regarding data collection gaps and resource status. These vessels harvest deep-slope species on offshore seamounts (or "banks") in Federal waters, land the bottomfish at Guam's commercial port, and export the bottomfish to Japan. Neither the level of fishing effort nor the amount of bottomfish harvested, which is believed to have started in 2001, is known. Guam's creel survey does not cover fish landed at the commercial port and the exported fish are not sold through any establishments that participate in the voluntary sales ticket monitoring program. Onaga (Etelis coruscans) appears to be the primary species that is targeted.

The southern banks have been fished for many years by Guam-based bottomfish fishermen using smaller vessels that engage in a mix of subsistence, recreational, and small-scale commercial fishing, particularly in the summer months, when weather conditions tend to be calmer. Most of the vessels fishing on the southern banks target the shallow-water bottomfish complex, but some target the deep-water complex.

It is unknown at this time whether the new component of the fishery is having significant impacts on marine resources. Initial discussions with fishery managers and Guam's fishing community (through a public scoping meeting held on Guam August 8, 2002 and February 8, 2003), indicate that the catch of fish by this new component may lead to localized overfishing of the bank area.

Council action will be restricted to those issues specifically listed in this document and any issue arising after publication of this document that requires emergency action under section 305(c) of the Magnuson-Stevens Fishery Conservation and Management Act, provided the public has been notified of the Council's intent to take final action to address the emergency.
