INTELSAT or any successor or separated entity will continue to qualify as an “international organization” for purposes of the special immigrant provision of INA 101(a)(27)(I), relating to certain international organization aliens and family members.

On January 11, 2002, the Department published an interim rule to implement these new provisions, and on April 17, 2002, the Department published a second interim rule to revise the interim regulation to further clarify the status of privatized INTELSAT and the personnel affected. As made clear in the second interim rule, Public Law 106–396 confers the status of international organization on privatized INTELSAT only in connection with the special immigrant provision in INA section 101(a)(27)(I). It also allows certain officers and employees of privatized INTELSAT to retain their G–4 status despite the fact that INTELSAT, once privatized, no longer meets the definition of international organization for purposes of visa classification under INA 101(a)(15)(G). Additionally, as the second interim rule clarified, Public Law 106–396 does not provide for G–5 status for servants of privatized INTELSAT officers and employees.

Were Comments Solicited on This Rule?
The Department solicited comments to be received no later than June 17, 2002. No comments were received.

Final Rule
The Department’s interim rule published on April 17, 2002 [67 FR 18821] provided all the amendments to 22 CFR 41.24. Since there are no further amendments necessary to the Department’s interim rule, the Department does not feel it necessary to republish the text of the interim. The interim rule is therefore being incorporated herein as a final rule.

Maura Harty,
Assistant Secretary for Consular Affairs,
Department of State.

Definition for Multipurpose Dry-Chemical Fire Extinguisher

AGENCY: Mine Safety and Health Administration (MSHA), Labor.

ACTION: Technical amendment.

SUMMARY: This technical amendment moves the definition for multipurpose dry-chemical fire extinguisher in subparts C and E of 30 CFR parts 56 and 57 to the general definitions section in subpart A of these parts. This action is necessary to eliminate confusion regarding compliance with the requirements for multipurpose dry-chemical fire extinguishers caused by it having two different weight designations in subpart A and a different one in subparts C and E.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:
Regulatory History
The definition for multipurpose dry-chemical fire extinguisher in subpart A of existing 30 CFR 56/57.2 states—

Multipurpose dry-chemical fire extinguisher means a listed or approved multipurpose dry-chemical fire extinguisher having a minimum rating of 2–A:10–B:C, by Underwriters Laboratories, Inc., and containing a minimum of 4.5 pounds of dry-chemical agent.

In 1985, MSHA promulgated a final rule [50 FR 4022] revising its “Fire Prevention and Control” standards for metal and nonmetal mines in subpart C of 30 CFR parts 56 and 57. The definition for multipurpose dry-chemical fire extinguisher in final §§ 56/57.4000 states—

An extinguisher having a rating of at least 2–A:10–B:C and containing a nominal 4.5 pounds or more of dry-chemical agent.

In 1991, MSHA promulgated a final rule [56 FR 46508] revising its “Explosives” standards for metal and nonmetal mines in subpart E of 30 CFR parts 56 and 57. The definition for multipurpose dry-chemical fire extinguisher in final §§ 56/57.6000 of “Subpart E—Explosives” is identical to that contained in §§ 56/57.4000 of “Subpart C—Fire Prevention and Control.”

With the publication of the final rules for “Subpart C—Fire Prevention and Control” and “Subpart E—Explosives,” the definition for multipurpose dry-chemical fire extinguisher in subpart A became irrelevant because this term is used only in subparts C and E.

Discussion of Changes
The definition for multipurpose dry-chemical fire extinguisher in subpart A (§§ 56/57.2) differs from the one in subpart C (§§ 56/57.4000) and subpart E (§§ 56/57.6000) in two ways. First, the definition in subpart A uses the word “minimum” instead of “nominal” in characterizing the amount of dry-chemical agent required. The preamble to the final rule for “Subpart C—Fire Prevention and Control,” however, states that—

* * * Because fire equipment manufacturers designate the weight of dry-chemical agent in an extinguisher by “nominal” weight rather than by “minimum” weight, the final rule uses the term “nominal” and clarifies that the nominal weight must be 4.5 pounds or more.

Second, the definition in subpart A specifies that the multipurpose dry-chemical fire extinguisher be “listed or approved * * * by Underwriters Laboratories, Inc.” The preamble to the final rule for “Subpart C—Fire Prevention and Control,” however, states that—

The final rule defines multipurpose dry-chemical fire extinguishers as those meeting at least the nationally recognized criteria for extinguishers with a 2–A:10–B:C rating. * * * Approval organizations, such as the Underwriters Laboratories, Inc. and Factory Mutual Research Corporation test and list fire extinguishers meeting this rating.

Although the more recent definition in subparts C and E differs slightly from subpart A, the intent of the definition remains the same. This disparity, however, has created confusion for some fire extinguisher manufacturers and mine inspectors.

To eliminate any confusion and redundancy, this technical amendment (1) replaces the outdated and unnecessary definition for multipurpose dry-chemical fire extinguisher in subpart A of 30 CFR parts 56 and 57 with the most current definition from subparts C and E of these parts; and (2) removes the redundant definitions of multipurpose dry-chemical fire extinguisher from subparts C and E.
