

license fee of the Exchange less any fees imposed by the Exchange that may offset the non-reimbursed license fee.

The Exchange asserts that a guaranteed license fee payment in connection with ETF and index options can be counter-productive in connection with the ability of the Exchange to offer new index products, if such products, do not trade in sufficient volumes to satisfy the Exchange's contractual commitments. Accordingly, the Exchange believes that requiring specialists units that are allocated ETF options and/or index options to pay the non-reimbursed license fee of the Exchange related to such product(s) is justified and consistent with the rules of the Exchange and the Act. In addition, the Exchange believes that the administration of this non-reimbursed license fee by passing it along to the specialist allocated to the particular index-based option is more efficient and consistent with the intent of the Exchange to pass on its non-reimbursed costs to those market participants that benefit.

The Exchange notes that the Amex in recent years has increased a number of member fees to better align Exchange fees with the actual cost of delivering services and reduce Exchange subsidies of such services.⁸ The Exchange believes that implementation of this amendment to the Options Fee Schedule is further consistent with such reduced or eliminated subsidies.

2. Statutory Basis

The Exchange believes that the proposed rule change is consistent with Section 6 of the Act,⁹ in general, and Section 6(b)(4) of the Act,¹⁰ in particular, in that it provides for the equitable allocation of reasonable dues, fees, and other charges among its members.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

The Exchange does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any burden on competition.

⁸ See Release Nos. 34-45360 (January 29, 2002), 67 FR 5626 (February 6, 2002); and 34-44286 (May 9, 2001), 66 FR 27187 (May 16, 2001). In addition, the Chicago Board of Options Exchange ("CBOE") recently made a change to its fee schedule relating to the pass-through of periodic license or royalty fees. C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants or Others

Written comments were neither solicited nor received with respect to the proposed rule change.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

The proposed rule change has become immediately effective pursuant to section 19(b)(3)(A)(ii) of the Act,¹¹ and subparagraph (f)(2) of Rule 19b-4 thereunder,¹² in that it establishes or changes a due, fee, or other charge imposed by the self-regulatory organization. At any time within 60 days of the filing of such proposed rule change, the Commission may summarily abrogate the rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

IV. Solicitation of Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views, and arguments concerning the foregoing, including whether the proposed rule change, as amended, is consistent with the Act. Persons making written submissions should file six copies thereof with the Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 450 Fifth Street, NW., Washington, DC 20549-0609. Copies of the submission, all subsequent amendments, all written statements with respect to the proposed rule change that are filed with the Commission, and all written communications relating to the proposed rule change between the Commission and any person, other than those that may be withheld from the public in accordance with the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 552, will be available for inspection and copying in the Commission's Public Reference Room. Copies of such filing will also be available for inspection and copying at the principal office of the Exchange. All submissions should refer to File No. SR-Amex-2003-26 and should be submitted by June 24, 2003.
