MidAmerican Energy Company, Complainant, v. Mid-Continent Area Power Pool, Respondent; Notice of Complaint

June 2, 2003.

Take notice that on May 30, 2003, MidAmerican Energy Company (MidAmerican) filed with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (Commission) a Complaint against the Mid-Continent Area Power Pool (MAPP) pursuant to section 206 of the Federal Power Act and rule 206 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, 18 CFR 385.206. According to the Complaint, MAPP is implementing a business practice that is inconsistent with its tariff and the Commission's pro forma tariff.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest this filing should file with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. The answer to the complaint and all comments, interventions or protests must be filed on or before the comment date below. This filing is available for review at the Commission in the Public Reference Room or may be viewed on the Commission's Web site at <http://www.ferc.gov> using the "FERRIS" link. Enter the docket number excluding the last three digits in the docket number field to access the document. For assistance, please contact FERC Online Support at FERCOnlineSupport@ferc.gov or toll-free at (866)208-3676, or for TTY, contact (202)502-8659. The answer to the complaint, comments, protests and interventions may be filed electronically via the Internet in lieu of paper; see 18 CFR 385.2001(a)(1)(iii) and the instructions on the Commission's Web site under the "e-Filing" link. The Commission strongly encourages electronic filings.

National Fuel Gas Supply Corporation; Notice of Tariff Filing

June 3, 2003.

Take notice that on May 30, 2003, National Fuel Gas Supply Corporation (National) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Fourth Revised Volume No. 1, Fifty Fifth Revised Sheet No. 9, to become effective June 1, 2003.

National states that the filing is made pursuant to a settlement approved by Commission Letter Order issued on February 16, 1996, in the proceedings in Docket Nos. RP94-367-000, et al. National explains that the settlement was revised in a subsequent Letter Order issued by the Commission on February 7, 2001.

National states that under Article II, section 2, of the settlement, it is required to recalculate the maximum Interruptible Gathering (IG) rate semi-annually and monthly. Further, National states that it is required to charge the recalculated monthly rate on the first day of the following month if the result is an IG rate more than 2 cents above or below the IG rate as calculated under section 1 of Article II. National asserts that the recalculation produced an IG rate of $1.21 per dth. National states that in addition, Article III, section 1 states that any overruns of the Firm Gathering service provided by National shall be priced at the maximum IG rate.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's rules and regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with § 154.210 of the Commission's regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. This filing is available for review at the Commission in the Public

Reference Room or may be viewed on the Commission's Web site at <http://www.ferc.gov> using the "FERRIS" link.
