Description: Section 311(a) of the Mine Safety and Health Act of 1977 (Pub. L. 91-173) states that each coal mine shall be provided with suitable firefighting equipment adapted for the size and conditions of the mine. Under 30 CFR 75.1100-3, chemical fire extinguishers must be examined every 6 months and the date of the examination recorded on a permanent tag attached to the extinguisher. Under section 75.1101-23(a), operators of underground coal mines are required to establish a program for the instruction of all miners in the proper fire fighting and evacuation procedures to be followed in event of an emergency. The program includes a specific fire fighting and evacuation plan designed to acquaint miners on all shifts with procedures for: (i) Evacuation of all miners not required for fire fighting activities; (ii) rapid assembly and transportation of necessary people, fire suppression equipment, and rescue apparatus to the scene of the fire; and (iii) operation of the fire suppression equipment available in the mine. Under section 75-1101-23(c), an underground coal mine operator is required to conduct fire drills at intervals of not more than 90 days. The operator is to certify by signature and date that fire drills were conducted in accordance with the approved program. Under section 75.1103-8, a qualified person must examine the automatic fire sensor and warning device systems on a weekly basis, and must conduct a functional test of the complete system at least once a year. Under section 75.1103-11, each fire hydrant and hose must be tested at least once a year, and the records of those tests shall be kept in an appropriate location.

Description: Section 185 of the Workforce Investment Act (WIA). (Pub. L. 105-220) requires funds recipients to keep records and submit such reports as may be required by the Secretary of Labor "to permit the tracing of funds to a level of expenditure adequate to ensure that the funds have not been spent unlawfully." The WIA Final Rules at 20 CFR 667.300 require annual plans and quarterly performance reports from all "direct grant recipients".

The primary uses of the data under WIA 167 Migrant and Seasonal Farmworker Youth Program are to provide material reports to the Secretary of Labor, respond to Congressional inquiries, support Congressional testimony on behalf of the program and to identify areas of technical assistance need and performance improvement. Data is also used to establish performance standards for each of the required performance measures per regulations at part 669, subpart D, sections 669.500 and 669.510.
