

certain ancillary services at market-based rates, and the reassignment of transmission capacity and the resale of firm transmission rights. Riverside also requested waiver of various Commission regulations. In particular, Riverside requested that the Commission grant blanket approval under 18 CFR part 34 of all future issuances of securities and assumptions of liability by Riverside.

On December 9, 2002, pursuant to delegated authority, the Director, Division of Tariffs and Market Development—South, granted the request for blanket approval under part 34, subject to the following:

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest the blanket approval of issuances of securities or assumptions of liability by Riverside should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214).

Notice is hereby given that the deadline for filing motions to intervene or protests, as set forth above, is August 18, 2003.

Absent a request to be heard in opposition by the deadline above, Riverside is authorized to issue securities and assume obligations or liabilities as a guarantor, indorser, surety, or otherwise in respect of any security of another person; provided that such issuance or assumption is for some lawful object within the corporate purposes of Riverside, compatible with the public interest, and is reasonably necessary or appropriate for such purposes.

The Commission reserves the right to require a further showing that neither public nor private interests will be adversely affected by continued approval of Riverside's issuances of securities or assumptions of liability.

Copies of the full text of the Order are available from the Commission's Public Reference Branch, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426. The Order may also be viewed on the Commission's Web site at <http://www.ferc.gov>, using the "FERRIS" link. Sinclair Oil Corporation, Complainant, v. ChevronTexaco Pipeline Company, Respondent; Notice of Complaint Requesting Fast Track Processing August 7, 2003.

Take notice that on August 6, 2003, Sinclair Oil Corporation (Sinclair) tendered for filing a Complaint Requesting Fast Track Processing against ChevronTexaco Pipeline Company (CPL).

Sinclair states that it is an interstate shipper of jet fuel on a pipeline that CPL owns and operates between Salt Lake Station, Davis County, Utah and Salt Lake Municipal Airport, Salt Lake City, Utah. Sinclair alleges that the CPL pipeline is necessarily engaged in interstate commerce and is therefore subject to FERC regulation, and that CPL is obligated to file a tariff with FERC with respect to that pipeline in accordance with section 342.2 of the Commission's regulations. Sinclair alleges that CPL has violated the Interstate Commerce Act by failing to file a tariff with the Commission for this pipeline.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest this filing should file with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. The answer to the complaint and all comments, interventions or protests must be filed on or before the comment date below. This filing is available for review at the Commission in the Public Reference Room or may be viewed on the Commission's Web site at <http://www.ferc.gov> using the "FERRIS" link. Enter the docket number excluding the last three digits in the docket number field to access the document. For assistance, please contact FERC Online Support at FERCOnlineSupport@ferc.gov or toll-free at (866) 208-3676, or for TTY, contact (202) 502-8659. The answer to the complaint, comments, protests and interventions may be filed electronically via the Internet in lieu of paper; see 18 CFR 385.2001(a)(1)(iii) and the instructions on the Commission's Web site under the "e-Filing" link. The Commission strongly encourages electronic filings.
