

Effects Studies of Hazardous Substances Releases and Facilities (55 FR 5136, February 13, 1990, codified at 42 CFR Part 90).

Areas emphasized in the online learning program include community involvement, exposure assessment, weight-of-evidence approaches to decision making, and developing public health action plans to address any public health hazards found during investigations.

The online learning program may be used by individuals to learn more about the public health assessment process, by community groups during meetings, and by individuals and groups as a communication tool when discussing concerns with the public health assessment team assigned to a site in their community. The program may also be used by agents of ATSDR to introduce new staff to the concepts of the public health assessment process and as a tool to stimulate communications with community members.

This notice announces the projected availability of the draft online learning program. The program has undergone extensive internal review. ATSDR encourages the public's participation and comment on the further development of this online learning program.

Administration for Children and Families

President's Committee on Mental Retardation; Name Change to President's Committee for People With Intellectual Disabilities; Membership Addition

AGENCY: President's Committee on Mental Retardation (PCMR), HHS.

ACTION: Notice of Amendments to Executive Order 12994, renaming the President's Committee on Mental Retardation, the addition of four members to the Committee and continuation of the Committee until September 30, 2005.

DATES: Friday, July 25, 2003.

In conjunction with the 13th Anniversary of the Americans with Disabilities Act, on Friday, July 25, 2003, President Bush amended Executive Order 12994 of March 21, 1996, to change the name of the President's Committee on Mental Retardation to the "President's Committee for People with Intellectual Disabilities." The name change was recommended to the President by the Committee members after a majority vote during the Committee's Third Quarterly Meeting held on May 12, 2003. The name change reflects efforts to promote equality for people with intellectual disabilities.

The President also amended the executive order by adding four additional members to the Committee: The Secretary of Commerce; The Secretary of Transportation; The Secretary of the Interior and the Secretary of Homeland Security.

The Amendment continues the Committee until September 30, 2005.
