

transporting hazmat. If the individual asserts that the results of the name-based background check are not accurate, the individual will submit fingerprints and/or relevant court documents so that the record may be corrected or the disqualifying offense may be verified.

B. Drivers whose name-based background checks do not indicate a disqualifying offense or incarceration within the time periods specified in the Interim Final Rule will be required to submit fingerprints in the period between 180 days and 5 (five) years from the effective date of the Interim Final Rule, or when applying for a new or renewed hazmat endorsement of their Commercial Driver's License (CDL), whichever occurs first.

C. If a name-based background check discloses that a driver is the subject of an outstanding felony want or warrant, TSA will ensure that the appropriate law enforcement agency is notified.

Such criminal history records checks are to include the review of available law enforcement databases and records as determined necessary by the Administrator of the Transportation Security Administration. In addition, TSA will be accessing other data sources as part of its effort to conduct background checks on commercial truck drivers who are authorized to carry hazardous materials.

TSA makes this request for the following reasons:

- In accordance with the USA PATRIOT Act, TSA must process criminal history records checks on more than three million commercial truck drivers who transport hazardous materials.
- Congress has determined that conducting background checks on commercial truck drivers transporting hazardous materials is a national priority. Given this urgency and the enormous volume of drivers to be checked, it is vital that TSA be given some latitude in conducting the background checks by first utilizing name-based checks while the infrastructure for fingerprint-based checks is put in place.

• TSA believes there are considerable gains in security to be made by using name-based background checks followed by fingerprint-based checks.

TSA proposes to carry out name-based background checks within the following parameters:

- A. At the first Compact Council meeting following the conduct of name-based background checks for at least 180 days ("180-day test period"), TSA shall report back to the Compact Council. During a period of 180 days, TSA will work with the following entities to develop a comprehensive infrastructure for capturing and processing fingerprints of hazmat CDL holders:
 - a. The Compact Council;
 - b. State central repositories;
 - c. State Departments of Motor Vehicles (DMVs);
 - d. The CJIS Division of the FBI, including its Advisory Policy Council;
 - e. SEARCH;
 - f. The International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP); and
 - g. The American Association of Motor Vehicle Administrators.

B. The public will be notified in advance that drivers will be subject to a name-based background check. The mechanisms for notification will include the Federal Register and communications with the States, the trucking industry, and the driver corps.

C. In no more than 180 days, TSA will have the infrastructure in place to begin fingerprinting all current HAZMAT drivers.

D. All fees for fingerprint collection and processing will be borne by the individual subject to the background check, or by his or her employer.

TSA proposes use of NCIC (including III) to determine whether applicants present a potential terrorist threat or may otherwise be a threat to transportation security. Given the terrorist threat level in transportation, existing statutory mandates, and the lack of adequate infrastructure to conduct fingerprint-based checks, TSA proposes to draw on the ability of NCIC (including III) to provide criminal history data on hazmat drivers.

Approved: March 13, 2003.

Francine J. Kerner,
Transportation Security Administration.

Agreed to: March 13, 2003.
