

Written comments and suggestions from the public and affected agencies concerning the proposed collection of information are encouraged. Your comments should address one or more of the following four points:

(1) Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;

(2) Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

(3) Enhance the quality, utility and clarity of the information to be collected; and

(4) Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses.

Overview of This Information Collection

(1) Type of information collection: Revision of a currently approved collection.

(2) The title of the Form/Collection: The Annual Survey of Jails (ASJ).

(3) Agency form number, if any, and the applicable component of the Department of Justice sponsoring the collection: Form Number: CJ-5, CJ-5A, CJ-5B, CJ-5B Addendum, and CJ-5C, Bureau of Justice Statistics, Office of Justice Programs, United States Department of Justice.

(4) Affected public who will be asked to respond, as well as a brief abstract: Primary: County and City jail authorities and Tribal authorities. This form is the only collection effort that provides an ability to maintain important jail statistics in the years between the jail censuses. The ASJ enables the Bureau, Federal, State, and local correctional administrators; legislators; researchers; and planners to track growth in the number of jails and their capacities nationally; as well as track changes in the demographics and supervision status of jail population and the prevalence of crowding.

(5) An estimate of the total number of respondents and the amount of time estimated for an average respondent to respond: Nine hundred and forty-six respondents each taking an average of 75 minutes to respond for collection forms CJ-5, CJ-5A, and, CJ-5B. Seventy respondents each taking an average of 30 minutes to respond for collection form CJ-5B Addendum. One hundred and twenty respondents each taking an average of 4 hours to respond for collection form CJ-5C.

(6) An estimate of the total public burden (in hours) associated with the collection: There are an estimated 1,698 annual total burden hours associated with the collection.

State of Alaska Commercial Fisheries Entry Commission, Permit Number SO4T65905; Dillingham, AK; Notice of Revised Determination on Reconsideration

By letter of April 25, 2003, the company official requested administrative reconsideration of the Department's Negative Determination Regarding Eligibility for Workers under State of Alaska Commercial Fisheries Entry Commission Permit Number SO4T65905, Dillingham, Alaska, to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance. The notice was published in the Federal Register on April 29, 2003 (68 FR 16834).

The initial petition was denied because there had been no employment decline. The company official however has provided information showing that workers are no longer producing salmon under State of Alaska Commercial Fisheries Entry Commission, Permit Number SO4T65905, Dillingham, Alaska. All workers have been separated.

The salmon processor to which the subject firm sold its salmon is no longer in business. Workers of the salmon processor are certified eligible to apply for adjustment assistance.

Conclusion

After careful review of the facts obtained in the reconsideration, I determine that workers covered by State of Alaska Commercial Fisheries Entry Commission, Permit Number SO4T65905, Dillingham, Alaska, qualify as adversely affected secondary workers under Section 222 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended.

In accordance with the provisions of the Act, I make the following revised determination:
