Notice of Funds Availability (NOFA) Inviting Applications for the Rural Cooperative Home-Based Health Care Demonstration Program

AGENCY: Rural Housing Service, USDA.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: This Notice announces the availability of $1 million of grant funds through the Rural Community Development Initiative (RCDI) Home-Based Health Care Demonstration Program through the Rural Housing Service (RHS), herein referred to as the Agency, USDA. These grant funds are split into two forms: Pre-development grants and revolving loan grants. The pre-development grants will not exceed $50,000 each and will be made to qualified public bodies or nonprofit organizations to establish a home health care cooperative. The revolving loan grants will be made to qualified nonprofit or public organizations that will provide start-up funds and technical assistance to pre-planning grant recipients and home health care cooperatives established through this program. The intermediary recipients for the revolving loan funds will be required to provide matching funds at least equal to the grant funds awarded. This is a demonstration project intended to result in the establishment and operation of home-based health care cooperatives. As such, pre-development grants will be linked with a revolving loan grant, to the same community, in order that the full operation of the cooperative will occur. This Notice lists the information needed to submit an application for these funds.

DATES: The deadline for receipt of an application is 4 p.m. e.s.t. on February 13, 2004. The application date and hour are firm. The Agency will not consider any application received after the deadline.

ADDRESSES: Entities wishing to apply for assistance may download the application requirements delineated in this notice from the RCDI Web site at www.rurdev.usda.gov/rhs/rcdi/index.htm. SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Programs Affected

This program is listed in the Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance under Number 10.446. This program is not subject to the provisions of Executive Order 12372, which requires intergovernmental consultation with State and local officials.

Paperwork Reduction Act

Under the Paperwork Reduction Act, 44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq., OMB must approve all "collection of information" by the Rural Housing Service. The Act defines "collection of information: as a requirement for "answers to * * * identical reporting or recordkeeping requirements imposed on ten or more persons * * *." (44 U.S.C. 3502(3)(A).) Because this NOFA will receive less than 10 respondents, the Paperwork Reduction Act does not apply.

Background

Congress created the Rural Community Development Initiative (RCDI) Rural Cooperative Home-Based Health Care demonstration project in fiscal year 2003 with an appropriation of $1 million under the Rural Community Advancement Program. These funds are to be used solely to develop and establish home-based health care cooperatives. Pre-development grants, not to exceed $50,000 each, will be made available to qualified public bodies or nonprofit-based community development organizations. Revolving loan grants will be made available to qualified public or nonprofit intermediary organizations (including tribal) proposing to carry out a program of financial and technical assistance.

National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA)

This program has been reviewed under the agency's environmental regulations. It has been determined that the provision of financial assistance for these types of grants are properly designated as categorical exclusions, which require no further documentation. This is based upon the finding that the purposes of these grants do not individually or cumulatively have a significant effect upon the human environment. Therefore, neither an environmental assessment nor an environmental impact statement is required.

Definitions for RCDI Purposes

Agency—the Rural Housing Service (RHS) or its successor.

Beneficiary—home-based health care cooperatives that receive benefits from assistance provided by the recipient.

Capacity—the ability of a recipient organization to provide pre-development planning services, manage revolving loan funds, or provide technical assistance towards establishing home-based health care cooperatives.

Cooperative—incorporated associations, at least 51 percent of whose members are rural residents having one vote each, that conduct such operations as producing, purchasing, marketing, processing, or other activities aimed at improving the income of their members as producers or their purchasing power as consumers.

Federally recognized tribes—tribal entities recognized and eligible for funding and services from the Bureau of Indian Affairs, based on the notice in the Federal Register published on March 13, 2000, volume 65, number 49, page 13298.

Financial assistance—funds used by the recipient to pay for the start-up cost of the home-based health care cooperative. Funds that the recipient lends to the beneficiary home-based health care cooperative for eligible home-based health care cooperative demonstration project purposes.

Fund—the Home-Based Health Care Demonstration Program grant.

Intermediary—a qualified private nonprofit or public (including tribal) organization recipient for the revolving loan grant that provides technical assistance to the pre-planning grant recipient. The intermediary will also provide financial and technical assistance to the home-based health care cooperative(s) formed through this program.

Matching Funds—cash or confirmed funding commitments. Matching funds must be at least equal to the grant amount. These funds can only be used for eligible home-based health care cooperative demonstration grant purposes. In-kind contributions cannot be used as matching funds. Matching funds must be committed prior to release of RCDI Rural Cooperative Home-Based Health Care grant funds to the revolving loan grant recipient.

Nonprofit organization—a private, community-based development entity with a valid letter from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) designating their tax exempt status.

Recipient—a public or community development based nonprofit organization receiving pre-development grant funds or a public or private nonprofit intermediary organization receiving revolving loan grant funds for the establishment of a home-based health care cooperative.

Revolved funds—the cash portion of a revolving loan fund that is not composed of Agency revolving loan grant funds, including funds that are repayments of loans to the home-based health care cooperatives from the revolving loan grant funds, including fees and interest collected on such loans. Revolved funds shall not be considered Federal funds.

Revolving fund—a group of assets obtained through, or related to, an Agency revolving loan grant and recorded by the recipient in a bookkeeping account, or set of accounts, and accounted for, along with related liabilities, revenues, and expenses, as an entity or enterprise separate from the recipient's other assets or financial activities.

Rural and rural area—a city, town, or unincorporated area that has a population of 50,000 inhabitants or less, other than urbanized areas immediately adjacent to a city, town, or unincorporated area that has a population in excess of 50,000 inhabitants. Urbanized area data will be based on the 2000 census.

Technical assistance—skilled help in improving the beneficiary's abilities in the areas of establishment and operation of a cooperative and home-based health care service. The Agency will determine whether a specific activity qualifies as technical assistance.

Eligibility Requirements

1. The recipient for the pre-planning grant and the beneficiary cooperative, but not the revolving loan grant recipient, must be located in an eligible rural area. The applicable Rural Development State Office can assist in determining the eligibility of an area. A listing of Rural Development State Offices is included in this notice.

2. The recipient for the pre-development grants must be a nonprofit community development based organization, or qualified public bodies. The recipient for the revolving loan grant funds must be nonprofit organizations or public bodies, including federally recognized tribes, based on the RCDI definitions of these groups.

3. Documentation must be submitted to verify recipient eligibility. Acceptable documentation varies depending on the type of recipient. A letter from the IRS verifying tax exempt status, or valid evidence that the entity is a public body, is required for nonprofit recipients. For federally recognized tribes, the Agency requires the page listing their name from the current Federal Register list of tribal entities recognized and eligible for funding services (see the definition of federally recognized tribes for details on this list).

4. Individuals cannot be recipients.

5. The revolving loan grant recipient must provide a program of technical assistance to the pre-planning grant recipient and financial and technical assistance to the beneficiary cooperative.

6. The intermediary must provide matching funds at least equal to the amount of the grant.

7. The revolving loan grant recipient organization must have at least 3 years prior experience working with cooperatives.

8. Proposals must be structured to utilize the grant funds within 1 year from the date of the award (this time requirement can be extended with the concurrence of the agency).

9. The recipient for the pre-development grant cannot be the same as the recipient for the revolving loan grant. Pre-development grants must be made to local public bodies or nonprofit groups located in the community to be served by the home-based health care cooperative. Revolving loan grants can be made to nonprofit or public bodies that are not located in the community where the cooperative is located, but who have the capacity to provide the required financial and technical services locally.

10. A nonprofit entity must already have a determination of tax-exempt status letter from the IRS when the recipient applies for the RCDI Rural Cooperative Home-Based Health Care Demonstration Program grant. Organizations with pending requests for this designation are not considered eligible.

Eligible Fund Uses

Fund uses must be consistent with the RCDI Home-Based Health Care Cooperative Demonstration Program purpose (see "Background" section of this notice). Pre-planning grant funds will be used to retain a demonstration project organizer to accomplish the following:

1. Provide outreach to home-based health care providers, and assess worker needs,
2. Work with local level human service providers,
3. Build community support among those who have contact with the elderly (social workers, physicians, pharmacists, clergy, hospitals, hospice, meals on wheels, etc.),
4. Select and train membership for the steering committee,
5. Conduct a survey of potential members,
6. Analyze market for home-based health care services,
7. Prepare a business plan,
8. Assist in the incorporation of the cooperative,
9. Assist the cooperative in the preparation and adoption of bylaws and the election of a board of directors, and
10. Hire a local cooperative service administrator and set up office.

At the conclusion of the work by the organizer, all planning elements should be in place for the formal creation of a home-based health care cooperative.

Revolving loan grant funds will be used by the recipient organization to:

1. Fund and administer a revolving loan program to provide start-up and operating funds to newly created home-based health care cooperatives.
2. Provide technical assistance to pre-planning grant recipients and the home-based health care cooperatives, including development of financial plans for the cooperative, establishing the cooperative's financial records process, and providing follow-up as the cooperative progresses from implementation to full operation. A maximum of ten percent of the grant funds and matching funds may be used by the revolving loan grant recipient to provide technical assistance to the pre-planning grant recipient and the newly formed home based health care cooperative.

Ineligible Fund Uses

1. Construction (in any form).
2. Funding illegal activities.
3. Funding a grant where there may be a conflict of interest, or an appearance of a conflict of interest, involving any action by the Agency.

4. Paying obligations incurred before the beginning date, or after the ending date, of the grant agreement.

5. Improvement or renovation of the recipient's office space or for the repair or maintenance of privately owned vehicles.

6. Payment of the recipient's administrative costs or expenses.

7. Any other purpose prohibited in 7 CFR parts 3015, 3016, and 3019, as applicable.

8. Funds cannot be used for recipient's general operating costs.

Interest Rates

Interest rates charged by the recipient to the beneficiary cooperative on loans made from the revolving loan fund shall be negotiated by the recipient and the beneficiary cooperative. The rate should be the lowest rate sufficient to cover the loan's proportional share of the revolving fund's debt service and administrative costs. Rural Development reserves the right to review the interest rate being charged.

Any cash in the revolving fund from any source that is not needed for servicing or administrative costs must be available for additional loans to beneficiary home health care cooperatives.

Application Selection Process

Rating and ranking. Applications will be rated and ranked by a review panel based on the "Evaluation Criteria and Weights" contained in this Notice. If there is a tied score after the applications have been rated and ranked, the tie will be resolved by reviewing the scores for "Capacity." The applicant with the highest score in that category will receive a higher ranking. If the scores for Capacity are the same, the scores will be compared for the next criterion, in sequential order, until one highest score can be determined.

Initial screening. The Agency will screen each application to determine eligibility during the period immediately following the application deadline. Listed below are many of the reasons for rejection to help prospective applicants prepare a better application. The following reasons for rejection are not all inclusive; however, they represent the majority of the applications previously rejected by the RCDI program.

1. Applicants for the pre-planning grants are not located in eligible rural areas based on the definition in this Notice.
2. Applicants failed to provide required evidence of recipient's status, i.e., documentation supporting nonprofit designation.

3. Applicants are individuals.

4. Applicants failed to address the Evaluation Criteria and were unable to compete.

5. The purpose of the proposal did not qualify as an eligible RCDI project purpose.

6. Funds are intended to be used for construction.

7. Financial and technical assistance is being provided directly to individuals.

The State Office will review their copy of the application and provide the State Director's written comments and recommendations to the National Office.
