

CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

File contains DD Form 2860; and may also contain: medical reports and disability compensation information from the Department of Veterans Affairs; medical reports from civilian medical facilities; medical board reports; statements of findings of physical evaluation boards; military health records; military personnel records; records and reports from the Defense Finance and Accounting Service; retirement records; pay information; requests for reconsideration submitted by the applicant; intra-agency and interagency correspondence concerning the case; correspondence from and to the applicant, members of Congress, attorneys, representatives, and other cognizant persons or parties; decisional documents issued by the Combat-Related Special Compensation Branch; any additional supporting documentation that the applicant submits to the Combat-Related Special Compensation Branch; and/or copies of any of the foregoing documents.

AUTHORITY FOR MAINTENANCE OF THE SYSTEM:

5 U.S.C. 5013, Secretary of the Navy; 10 U.S.C. 1413a; and E.O. 9397 (SSN).

PURPOSE(S):

To determine whether Navy and Marine Corps career retirees who have applied for combat-related special compensation are entitled to it by establishing the combat-related circumstance(s), if any, under which the disability was incurred.

To notify the Defense Finance and Accounting Service of the findings in order to effectuate payment of combat-related special compensation.

To respond to official inquiries concerning the applications of particular applicants. The file may also be referred to by the Board for Correction of Naval Records in conjunction with their subsequent review of applications from applicants.

Routine uses of records maintained in the system, including categories of users and the purposes of such uses:

In addition to those disclosures generally permitted under 5 U.S.C. 552(b) of the Privacy Act, these records or information contained therein may specifically be disclosed outside the DoD as a routine use pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552(b)(3) as follows:

To officials and employees of the Department of Veterans Affairs to request and verify information of service-connected disabilities in order to evaluate applications for combat-related special compensation.

The DoD 'Blanket Routine Uses' that appear at the beginning of the Navy's compilation of systems of records notices apply to this system.

Policies and practices for storing, retrieving, accessing, retaining, and disposing of records in the system:

STORAGE:

Paper records, computerized data base, CD-ROM.

RETRIEVABILITY:

Name and docket number, and/or Social Security Number.

SAFEGUARDS:

Files are maintained in file Suite(s) or other storage devices under the control of authorized personnel during working hours. Computerized system is password protected. Access during working hours is controlled by Naval Council of Personnel Boards personnel and the office space in which the file Suite(s) and storage devices are located is locked after official working hours. The office is located in a building on military installation that has 24-hour gate sentries and 24-hour roving patrols.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

Records are retained on-site at the Naval Council of Personnel Boards for one year. After that, they are retired to the Washington National Records Center, 4205 Suitland Road, Suitland, MD 20409 for retention. After a total of 75 years, records are destroyed.
